Nicole Carlson Easley is director of marketing and communications for the Florida Municipal Electric Association, and is editor-in-chief for association publications. She lives in Tallahassee with her husband and daughter.

If you're making a trip to Savannah, this is a great book to read first. We go two or three times a year and always try to learn as much as we can about this fascinating city, but Nicole has information in this book that I wasn't aware of. She did a great job with it.

This is a very informative and interesting book. I enjoyed it very much.
