Bloom: 50 Things To Say, Think, And Do With Anxious, Angry, And Over-the-Top Kids

Synopsis

The first multi-media parenting book that gives readers a new way to take a collaborative stance with children, improving their cognitive, emotional and social skills. Written for real parents with anxious, angry and over-the-top kids, Bloom is a brain-based approach to parenting all children. Stop second-guessing the way you handle misbehaviors, and learn why they occur in the first place. Come to understand the developmental origins of behaviors and take a fresh look at how you can address them with skill-building techniques that produce real and lasting change. Taking its lead from neuroscience and best practices in early childhood mental health, Bloom offers parents, teachers and care providers the words, thoughts and actions to raise calm, confident children, while reducing the need for consequences and punishment. The first book of its kind, Bloom provides pages full of printable mantras you can carry with you, hang on your fridge or use in your classroom to raise emotionally competent kids. Bloom allows you to take a collaborative stance with your children, improving their cognitive, emotional and social skills. Bloom offers a new approach to human relationships that will change the way you perceive, think and feel about parenting, love, work and life. Bloom changes everything. If it works wonders with anxious, angry and over-the-top kids, imagine what it can do for your child. BONUS: Each chapter has a QR code that links to bonus videos so you can hear directly from the authors about each topic. Lynne Kenney, PsyD, mother of two, is a "mom social media expert," Harvard-trained pediatric psychologist, and author of The Family Coach Method. Wendy Young, LMSW, BCD, mother of three, is an award-winning therapist and an early childhood mental health consultant.

By far the best book I have read on parenting. It is an easy read and everything in the book makes total sense. Easy to implement and profoundly helpful for my son that just does things a bit differently and does not fit inside the typical 7 year old mold.

Bloom: 50 Things to Say, Think and Do with Anxious, Angry and Over the Top Kids was a purchase I made for work and it has paid off. I am able to help parents with some of the difficult behaviors they experience when parenting. The book is very straightforward and breaks behaviors down by chapter. There are little cue cards for reference on how to respond when in a difficult or trying situation with young ones. It is helpful quick reference tool for professionals working with families and a great guide for parents to utilize on their own. I'd recommend it.

I work with kids with challenging behaviors and families. Sometimes it is more difficult to work with the parents. This book offers helpful advice for me to give the parents to help their children.

Not as helpful as I had hoped. References theories not in book.

Ideal for today's children

Excellent book! Extremely helpful. Thank you

Love this Bloom! There are so many take aways! Can be used with parents and/or teachers.
