Secrets: A Spiritual Warfare Romantic Thriller (Crystal Book 6)

Synopsis

Two unlikely people. An undeniable passion. A devastating secret. Two passions consume Crystal: vengeance over the SOT, and love for Juda. Nothing may ever come of either. Juda feels connected to Crystal in a way he has never felt with anyone before. But a devastating secret holds him back. Crystal may be the most forgiving person he's ever known, but even she would never forgive him if she finds out what he did. Some things are best kept secret. But can he live with himself if he doesn't tell her? A Christian supernatural thriller with romance and a hint of conspiracy by bestselling author, Dayo Benson. Customer Reviews

While Dayo Benson is a good story teller, I have been an editor for years and I could hardly get through these books because of the grammatical errors. Besides the poor writing, I could not give a higher rating because there is way too much power given to the demonic realm. I know from friends who have come out of Satanic churches that horrible things happen, but not one of them could teleport and mind read. This sense of power is dangerous for someone who is seeking truth since it might encourage them to try the Satanic church. God is more powerful than Satan and that just does not come across in these books like it should. But like I said, the story line is good and does keep your interest.

Secrets, book 6 of the Crystal Series by Dayo Benson takes the relationship between Juda and Crystal a bit further, but is also as the title suggests filled with secrets. In Delirium, the previous book, Crystal and her team manages to destroy all of Luke's capsules filled with a deadly virus as well as hack into the broadcasting network that Luke has monopolised for his personal use and stop his broadcast that would have blamed them for the horrors going on in the country with the contaminated water. They end up broadcasting their own clip informing people of the contaminated tap water as well as Bevlon water and introduce the antidote that Max has created against the drugged water via the pharmaceutical company of one of their financial sponsors. Luke obviously is furious and the surprise is when Shola, his long term partner, tells Crystal that she would be their new informant as she wants Luke to be stopped and to be free of him. She also informs them that Luke plans on becoming the president of the United States. Luke wants his researchers to find a breakthrough in their immortality research as he doesn't want to die. He wants to kill Crystal and her team of ex-SOT members who all seem to be becoming Christians one by one, but he wants his son, Juda, to come back to him first. He reaches out to Zeke, Juda's Christian twin, and invites him to New York saying that they should bond, but he wants Zeke to take the fall for Juda as the previous president's assassin. He keeps sending signals for Juda to contact him and come back to him as well, hoping Juda would respond to one and not keep blocking him out. Juda is in love with Crystal and he is becoming "softer" in a sense, but only towards her and when he is alone with her. He still wants to torture and kill Luke for killing his mother, Namyra. He focuses on his craft and cuts himself to get more power to overpower Luke. He counsels himself to develop a better moral code and starts to accept that the way he was raised by Luke and his murdering nature is wrong and family is important, especially his mother's family as he doesn't feel affection for Luke or his other half-brothers. He still struggles between what he was trained to do from birth and what he realises Crystal expects from him. He feels that he has to tell Crystal a secret that he has been keeping, but he is afraid she would never forgive him. Crystal decides that the team should stop reacting to Luke's actions and rather start anticipating what he would do and be proactive. She comes across a note from Luke to Juda before Juda can destroy it and start doubting whether Juda would stay loyal. When Juda disappears after hearing them talk about him, she becomes more worried about his emotional state and what he would do. This book shows how love and acceptance can positively influence a broken spirit, but also how someone can turn back to their old dark ways if they are judged by those closest to them. It deals with how Christians should not judge others, but rather show them Christ's love. In the end Christ's light, love and goodness shines through and it changes people's hearts more when they see others act out what they preach. There is a turning point for Juda in the end. Will it be for his good or to his detriment? Keep reading as this series keeps getting better, even though the darkness can become quite heavy at times. Another awesome book!

I love this series, however, there is too much description about everything, I glossed through a lot of pages and still landed where I left off. The first 3 books were more personal now they are becoming scientific, technical and repetitive. I am still hanging in there. I believe it will get better.

I absolutely love Dayo Benson's books they really show God in them and each one is pure art. :) I would highly recommend every book of hers.

This book is advertised as a Christian read & I was very disappointed that there was sexual situations & conversations thru out. I feel the book could have been very good without any of the sexual lifestyles & situations that the author put in the book all the books were Amazing!

This series has been an excellent interpretation of spiritual warfare. Good vs evil is real and as a Christian I believe that nothing and no one is greater than God. Anyone on the fence in their walk may benefit from this series. I'm loving it!

In this book, Juda is actually feeling the Holy Spirit. It's very exciting to have that experience put in words.
