Recommended! As a relative newcomer to Arizona, this map is a must-have. My wife and I use it when trying to figure things out (like, $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A}$ $\hat{a} \neg \tilde{A}$ \hat{A}^{e} Where the heck is Prescott? $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A}$ $\hat{a} \neg \tilde{A}$ \hat{A}^{\bullet}) and for planning drives. We have two of these EasyFinder maps, one of greater Phoenix, and this one of Arizona.What I like about it: It $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A}$ $\hat{a} \neg \tilde{A}$ $\hat{a}_{,,\phi}$ s big but not too big; it $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A}$ $\hat{a} \neg \tilde{A}$ $\hat{a}_{,,\phi}$ s much smaller than the AAA highway maps. So, you can easily open it up in the car, or even hand-hold it and look at everything. When it folds up, you can stick it into a car door pocket or even (sometimes) a pants pocket. It $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A}$ $\hat{a} \neg \tilde{A}$ $\hat{a}_{,,\phi}$ s plastic laminated, so it won $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A}$ $\hat{a} \neg \tilde{A}$ $\hat{a}_{,,\phi}$ t tear.Supposedly you can write on it with a wipe-off market, but $|\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A}$ $\hat{a} \neg \tilde{A}$ $\hat{a}_{,,\phi}$ s the side we use most. The back has smaller city maps of greater Phoenix, the Grand Canyon, Prescott, Yuma, etc. We recently made a long weekend up in Flagstaff, and found the little city map invaluable.Now, why a printed map instead of something high-tech? Yes, we have a GPS and smart phones with us when we travel. That $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A}$ $\hat{a} \neg \tilde{A}$ $\hat{a}_{,,\phi}cs$ great for driving directions, but doesn $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A}$ $\hat{a} \neg \tilde{A}$ $\hat{a}_{,,\phi}ct$ really give you a sense of where things are. For that, you need a map. And at the price, it really can $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A}$ $\hat{a} \neg \tilde{A}$ $\hat{a}_{,,\phi}ct$ the beat.HINT: We have the 2013 edition of the map, with a blue cover. sells older editions, like 2003 and even 1995, but Arizona $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A}$ $\hat{a} \neg \tilde{A}$ $\hat{a}_{,,\phi}cs$ highways are constantly changing. Buy the latest edition.

True, it's durable and easy to fold, but not so easy to read near the folded areas, of which there are several. Basically, someone took a good map, cut it into pieces, set the pieces near each other with gaps between the pieces, then laminated the lot and folded it along the gaps. This leaves significant gaps between the map sections, making it hard to read across the folds. I'd rather have an unlaminated version of this map before it was cut up and separated into pieces, but apparently they don't sell those - you can only buy them after they've been sliced up and patched back together with gaps between the pieces.

Remember the old paper maps (if you're old enough, of course)? Remember how they were magically folded, never to be refolded again by mere mortals? Hmm? Do ya? well, with this new (to me) technology that is no longer a problem. The map is in sections, so you can fold it over to just see that one area. On one side you have the entire state, with easy-to-follow legends. If you need to mark your route, you can do so, then rub out the markings (provided you don't use a permanent marker). This is great for those road trips.

Great map series. I highly recommend any state map of this type! For one that uses good old fashion paper maps, this product is for you.I also use these to confirm what my GPS says! Nothing like redundancy!! I have used the free state maps you get from welcome centers or other venues when travelling & had problems with them tearing along the folds or simply wearing out. This eliminates this problem. These maps should last indefinitely & with the economy tanking, I don't expect any radical changes or many new hwys to be built in the near future. However should there be new highways, these maps could easily be drawn on with any marker to modify the map. Great product & well worth the $$!!Additionally, I am a motorcyclist that does 1-3 long distance trips a year & usually solo. I have about 20+ various states worth of these maps because they are really durable, waterproof (a must on a motorcycle!) & you can fold them up repeatedly to the specific section you are interested in. Space is a premium on any bike but I make room for these maps in my grip. Even if you aren't a motorcyclist, these maps are great cause they won't rip! Buy em!

Don't buy it--it's not like a real road map, or even just a nice map of the state. It's a map of Arizona divided up and laminated, so there are clear gaps between the folds.

This is very undetailed. The map is small and only shows major roads. A disappointment.

The best maps on the market. This saved our bacon on a tour of Route 66. There are gaps in the map where the fold lines appear, but they are hardly noticeable after a while.

What an excellent nifty map. We used this at home to "compute" our trip, on the road to give us an overview of the GPS location and directions, and at the hotel every night to get a good idea of where we were going the next day. The map unfolds (or puts away) for use in a matter of 2-3 seconds. My navigator (wife person actually) could easily use this while we were driving to confirm what we were doing and where we were going. We even found a couple of places we would have missed if we had not had your "easy to use" map to help us. Well done Rand McNally!
