I actually enjoyed reading this book because the author made it so easy to follow and to read.

I am not going to Africa any time soon, but now I really want to go after reading this book. The places described in the book seem so amazing and breath-taking that you can't help but to make it your dream to go visit each of these places. I appreciate the amazing visuals and description of each destination provided.

I have heard of Cape town before, but this guide helped me understand a little more. It is an exceptionally green place, which I did not know! I can't imagine what this place looks like in person, but I will take this with me if I ever go!
