I loved F*&*er Next Door!It was a super sweet and deliciously dirty read!!I love Slade and his possesiveness... For me that's a huge turn on, when the heroes are so damn possesive... Yum!!I also loved Cassie's sweetness and naughty side... So hot!I hope there is more stories with the "Cursed House" lol

First, can we talk about the title ??!! Awesome, right ??!! I love it !! Slade is a player and Cassie is a strong, independent woman who is not putting up with his ways. They become friends. Good friends. Then it gets real when they become FwB !!! You gotta read this  $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}$   $\tilde{A}$   $\hat{A}$   $\hat{A}$

I loved this story so much! Beautiful story of 2 people learning each other and giving themselves a chance to grow from fun friends to love. Beautifully written. And those 2 on the end would be nice to know what happens with them.

As usual some steamy sex but also a good story. Manwhore meets woman scorned but told with character development. Add to your list

I absolutely loved this book. I am hoping there will be a couple more books about the next sets of neighbors.

This is a great story. I liked both Cassie and Slade, their chemistry was hot. Sam Crescent is a wonderful author.

The books name is really catching your attention. The name fits the story. Slade was a f*****. Well, at least at the beginning. And slowly he showed his other side, that caught Cassies attention. It was entertaining to watch how Cassie and Slade gone from animosity to friendly neighbours to friends and then added benefits. I think there is something about the rumours, that this two houses brings couples together. But despite that they entertained me, I also... Well, I can't name it. It wasn't exactly irritation or annoyance. But I couldn't help but snort and roll my eyes every time at Slade and Cassie, when they played 'lie to yourself' game. They so often denied their growing feelings, it wasn't even funny. But what was funny, that they played 'it's just fun' game, while all their actions were something more, something special. Maybe me looking from outside, was why I could see it. And I guess, what they both went through their lifes affected their view on love, marriage and all about it. But also it's sad that they would give up reaching theirs dream just because of the first stone on their path. Well, I guess then they were lucky that they got magic houses, that somehow, someway made them to see magic in love.

I was excited to read this book. I love Sam Crescent. Looking at the cover I was impressed to see a "plus" size model. First, there were quite a few spelling mistakes. Cassie became Casey, words missing from sentences, things like that. A few mistakes can be overlooked but habitual mistakes cannot be overlooked. It takes away from the reading experience. Now, back to our heroine. She is a size 18 and it has to be made known in the book how she walks everywhere and exercises. Plus it only says she is T&A. Never mentions any other curves or jiggly bits. Says she is comfortable in her skin. I think it is awesome how she is comfortable in her skin. Being big myself I always look forward to books with bigger heroines but I think the model and the character don't match. It was a steamy, funny, fun book. Toss up if I really can say hurry out and one click it.
