Synopsis

I won't do anything you don't want me to do, Caspian tells me. I'll just force you to do as you wish. I've always been a good girl. Partly by choice, partly because of my mother's shame and my father's belt. Caspian White is strong. Handsome. Powerful. Frightening. The world knows his name, envies his wealth, suspects his kinks, and fears his wrath. I've kept myself pure, and that's drawn Caspian to me like a predator to prey. I don't want to do what he wants me to. I just want to conclude my business with Caspian and go. But Caspian seems to have been watching me for a while. I'm a target, and he knows me too well. I'm afraid he'll force me to do things I'll regret and that if he does, my shameful half will enjoy it. Gagged is a billionaire romance about love and lust, darkness and light. It contains BDSM elements but is not really a BDSM romance. It's a billionaire romance about testing socially imposed limits ... and embracing the desires inside us.

I couldn't wait to know more about Caspian White since getting a glimpse of him in the series Trevor's Harem. Caspian has been obsessed with Aurora Henley and orchestrate for them to finally meet. He wants Aurora to let herself be who he knows she should be or wanting to be. Aurora & Caspian need each other even if they don't want to admit it. I loved Aurora & Caspian together and them both helping each other heal.

I have read the Burning Choice series and loved it. This book did not disappoint. I was not a fan of Caspian but loved him at the end. Would have loved another chapter prior to the epilogue just to add a little extra. Great writer! I will definitely look at other books of hers

This book was so intriguing I read it from start to finish within a few hours! I just couldn't put it down!

As always, with anything I've read from Aubrey, I'm blow away. The unique things Aubrey writes about is always interesting and I always want more. I love a good mind game. The more questions it evokes in me the more I'm pulled into a book. Caspian is such an ass and I love it! He knows who and what he is and I love that even more. Sexy. Steamy. A little touch of the forbidden. A fantastic read.

I first met Caspian in the Trevor's Harem series. He interested me, and loved the interaction between him and Aurora. This book was mildly sexually charged but also very romantic. I would definitely recommend.

It was good but somewhat predictable. Nice story but could've been more explicit in the love scenes.

Aurora is on a mission and Caspian, a high-powered business man. When they meet, sparks really do fly. This story line just draws you into their interactions; lots of twists, turns and surprises. Both Aurora and Caspian are fascinating, complex characters. Definitely a good read and I'll be enjoying more books by this author. I'm now a Aubrey Parker fan!

Omg, I really loved this book. I had conflicting thoughts about it at times... but when I picked it up again, my thoughts changed. It's a little dark and a lot of sexy romance. But above all of the little bit of dark and sexy romance, is the raw feelings and thoughts they both have. And that's what released the gag.
