Customer Reviews

Peg Couch is an amateur seamstress and Editorial Director at Fox Chapel Publishing. She served as the style editor for Tree Craft and the editor for the Illustrated Guide to Sewing Series.

The cover of the book is what attracted my attention; to the designer of that cover congratulations. When I received the book and anxiously skimmed through it I must say I was really impressed. Someone not being able to read can follow the directions and picture graphs. I can hardly wait to impress friends and family for the season.

love it, cute and easy to make for special events, great for gifts Great colored pictures. Good solid cover and binding

I bought this book for my daughters birthday party. i liked it. It is a Good book with cute ideas and easy to follow instructions.

Love the ideas and it makes it easier to follow. User friendly. I love my book because it gives you the idea and you just have to perfect it by practicing.

We plan on making edible bouquets for special occasions. Book gives us lots and lots of ideas!

very easy to follow recipes. I used it as a gift for a young lady who loves creative cooking and she was excited about trying it out.

Very creative

a sweet cook book even tips for what to do with the left overs . you gotta love it .
