Customer Reviews

To Genevieve, Girl you did a wonderful story. Pastor Titus sounds so fine and the same time a man of the cloth, like I need him to come out the book and cover me in prayer or like I wanna join his church. I'm glad that Tina introduced Tosha to Titus and Summer is the Icing on the Cake. Now you did that when you let Eunice have a protege in Barbara but nit to long or drawn out. Now Eunice is a cougar stealing from the chu

I enjoyed this read. Titus was a true man a God and he was very protective of his wife. I was glad that he found another love ordained by God and he recognized it without grief getting in the way. Now, Barbara and his ignorant Mama was another story. I probably would've put hands on both of them. Anyway, looking forward to part 2.

Truly gifted writer. I really enjoyed this story.

I enjoyed reading Love Again. I could feel the emotional, and divine connection of each character. Sometime when loss is suffered, we tend to place the blame on God. But, when we trust him wholeheartedly, there is nothing he wouldn't do for them that trust his word! Excellent read!

This book reminds u of the power of forgiveness,love and God's timing. Please understand mental illness is realand dangerous when left untreated.

This book, Love Again, had me all in my feelings. I've experienced every emotion known to humankind. That's what I look for in reading a good book!Genevieve Woods is a Rock Star as an author!!!

I just simply love it!! I'm Super excited about the next, How Pastor Caine's love story will progress just excited!!

Don't you just love a book that takes you on such a journey where you actually forget you're reading a book? That's what Love Again did for me. Not just the first page but the first words and BOOM I was completely emersed within the story. Genevieve did a masterful job of showing a love so deep between Pastor Titus and Pearl that had me all choked up - and that was the beginning of the book! Only to turn around and do it again! Once in a lifetime love, maybe. Twice....never, but it happened. If you believe in love paired with a strong man of faith then Love Again is a must read!
