We're Surviving Cancer . . . Today

Synopsis

"We're Surviving Cancer . . . Today" tells the story of how one couple is surviving a husband's encounter with lung cancer. Bennett recounts his day-to-day survival in excerpts from periodic health updates he sends to family and friends. He hopes his story will help others understand the benefit of not carrying the burden of anxiety alone and the advantage of sharing joy and despair with those who offer love and support. Linda shares her story in a collection of reflections on how she has navigated the terrain of surviving cancer with Bennett and where she has found the strength to continue their journey. Their words reveal how love can nurture the hope and the courage to survive cancer one day at a time.

Bennett Lentczner is recognized across the country as a leader in arts education and an outstanding music educator. A university dean and provost for more than eighteen years, Bennett has served on numerous national, regional, state and local boards and associations as well as evaluation and accreditation teams. He is the founding president of RealVisions and remains an active trumpet player and conductor. His soon-to-be-published book Every Step Counts, Every Word Matters is a collection of his stories, writings and speeches from more than half-a-century as a musician, educator and administrator. Linda Whitesitt is a violinist, teacher, musicologist and writer. The coauthor of The ARTS Book, she is a well-known writer on arts integration as well as women's organizational and financial support of classical music. Linda heads RealVisions' work in arts integration research and evaluation. Her most recent book, The Summer of Our Awakening, is a tale of how listening to earth's voices helps one woman awaken to her kinship with creation. She is currently working on a mystery that takes place at the intersection of the world of academe and the fracking industry. Bennett and Linda live in Berkeley Springs, WV with their two cats, Omar and Heshie, neither of whom write.

These two amazing people share their incredible journey with us. Their words touched my heart, mind, and spirit, and left many lasting impressions. I truly didn't want to stop reading; i wanted to "hear" more words of inspiration, learn more of their experiences, and gain further insights into how they both survived - and thrived - so incredibly well - and beautifully. A must read for anyone who has a friend or family member experiencing a life-threatening disease.
