Super Burp! #1 (George Brown, Class Clown)

Synopsis

The first day at a new school is always the hardest, right? No, not always as George finds out the hard way. On the second day at Sugarman Elementary School, he is suddenly seized by uncontrollable burps, burps so loud they practically break the sound barrier, burps that make him do wild and crazy stuff and land him in trouble with a capital T. One thing is for sure: these are not normal burps, they are magic burps and they must be stopped! But how?

Gr 2-4 George Brown moves to a new town and leaves his old friends behind. Having had a reputation as the class clown and funny man, he is determined to mend his ways and get the kids in his new class to like him without jokes. Then his parents take him out for ice cream and he suddenly lets out the biggest burp ever. It takes over his body and he starts dancing on the table. When the burp pops, he doesn't know what came over him and why he isn't able to control himself. The burp haunts him at home and at school, causing him to do such things as skateboard in the hallways. He tries to control it and, in the meantime, make some friends by just being himself. The kids are a typical cast of characters with the popular boy giving George a hard time and the nice nerdy kid befriending him. The story line makes for a fun read, but it's not outstanding or innovative. Line drawings add humor and break up the short chapters. Since the book ends with George questioning whether he can control his burps in the future, more titles in the series are sure to follow. Clare A. Dombrowski, Amesbury Public Library, MA

Our son was reluctant to read this book at first. However, since he absolutely loved the Diary of the Wimpy Kid series (he just turned 8 and has read ALL of the Diary series in 3 months), I wanted him to give these books a try. From the previous reviews I read before making the purchase, I thought this series would be sort of similar. I've been having our son read out loud on the way to school in the carpool line and we are both constantly laughing! George Brown is a loveable, silly 4th grader- although the cover of the book made me think he'd be much younger. His body seems to overtake him at times and he just can't help what comes out- in this book, it's "super burps." The burps get him into trouble and from there, the fun really begins! I give this book 5 stars because it's great for young boys who might not enjoy reading. It's light-hearted and goofy and there are pictures which enhance the storyline. I also like that it is a series so that we can see how the character evolves and what antics George will do next!

This is a great series that my 6 year old LOVES. I am old school and was a little concerned about the body sounds humor...but it is fine. He liked it so much he just read the fourth book in the series by himself in about a day. I would say this is a second grade reading level and up.

Great book for my 7 year old

I am a teacher and all the children love this series! It is funny and a fast read. Katie Kazoo is a series that has the same characters.

Read this to my second grade class and they begged me to buy the next one. Of course I will!

This book is good for 2-3 graders. Kids can relate to George. A good mix of action and humor. Looking forward to the next book in the series.

I loved this fantastic book you just wrote! I gave you this rating because the way you used these words really inspired me but not to be an author

My 8 year old son LOVED this book and we will be looking into buying more of the series. This is also an AR book
