Customer Reviews

My twelve year old loved this book and is ready for the rest in the series! It wasn't babyish, she really loved the plot, and I love that it's one of my favorite authors as well. Glad she is branching out to younger readers, as I really feel she is an excellent author. She balances the Christian perspective and reality without making it seem cheap, or including it because it's a must for Christian fiction. Excellent!

Once again Gabby finds the culprit. Well written, good character and excellent plot. Once again Christy Barritt does an excellent job of writing a mystery that makes you not want to stop reading until the end.

I would recommend this book to anyone. As always it is typically Christy Barritt humor which I enjoy. Clean and funny.

Great book. Good clean fun for my tween.

I love these books!

Good book for teen girls.

This is the second installment in Gabby S. Claire's middle school adventures. Gabby has gotten herself a job! Well, sort of, dog sitting is a job! After all, she is getting paid! She soon learns that dogs are disappearing! Stolen! Now Gabby and her new boyfriend must find out who is taking these poor animals and why. Everyone is a suspect it seems and its up to her to figure it all out and save the animals. Another great young reader story!

The second book in the Gabby St. Claire Diaries series features this impetuous middle school amateur detective as she tries to help uncover who's behind local dognappings. Amid the deepening suspense, her adventures get her into trouble with her friends and parents. Will she solve the crimes and could the guilty parties be someone she knows? Life seems constantly wild with Gabby around. I received this book from the author in exchange for an honest review.
