Postman Pat And The Christmas Baby

Synopsis

First published in 1998, this story has a festive feel. Greendale is expecting a white Christmas. But Dr Gilbertson and Pat are worried about a very special delivery. Jenny is expecting a baby, but the roads are blocked by snow and the ambulance can't make it up the hill. Pat has a plan, everyone helps and the day is saved.

Customer Reviews

Postman Pat delivers the mail in a little village in Northern England and to the farms and stately home nearby. On this simple basis, John Cunliffe has constructed a series of books that will surely appeal to all children who are old enough to understand a simple story, especially those who are just beginning to read for themselves. Both my children have loved Postman Pat from age about two and a half, and my nephew enjoyed him until about the age of 10. The text is well complemented by colourful pictures. This addition to the series fully matches the standards of earlier books.
