Customer Reviews

'The answer to every short-breaker's dream. The jewel-coloured guides look beautiful and are exquisitely designed.' The Times 'Gorgeous photography, sharp graphics, and design-savvy, waffle-free text, written by city insiders rather than bearded backpackers.' The Independent 'Glamorous, global and affordable.' Telegraph magazine 'Packed with insider knowledge and eye-catching photography.' Vogue 'Ultra-glam, uber-chic' The Observer 'Attractive and well-researched.' USA Today 'Ultra-stylish.' Time Magazine 'Sophisticated but simple.' The New York Times 'Small, stylish and beautifully illustrated, the Wallpaper* City Guides make everything else look old hat. ... The photographs and maps are superb.' The Sydney Magazine --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

Wallpaper* City Guides are curated by an extensive network of travel experts, including in-house editors and on-the-ground correspondents.

Definitely not worth the money. Not many unique tips or places that aren't featured in more comprehensive guides. Restaurant section is particularly bad--all of the places that appealed to me turned out to be shut down already.

True to it's brand, this Wallpaper* City Guide featured some of the Barcelona's best things to see and do. A big, honking drawback: the map is small and as a result is utterly useless. But the guide's other content is worth it. I also loved the section for notes (with matte-finished paper for easy writing) and sketches.

I was not happy with this guide, it was too clever for it's own good. There was not enough detailed, practical information....isn't that why one buys a guide? There were interesting points discussed, if the basics had been there I would have rated it higher. I liked the size, that's it.
