In the fifth volume of medical stories submitted by first responders and medical professionals, the selected submissions are more intense than ever before. Submissions included within this volume are officer accounts of horrific crime scenes, strange sexual injuries, odd drug-induced behavior, shocking deaths, and warnings from RNs and M.D.s regarding publicity stunts and wacky ideas. Just when you think you've seen and heard it all, you'll turn the page and stand corrected.

Customer Reviews

This one was different than the others in that it wasn't really a medical comedy but more like a collection of "you can't make this %$#@ up" I work in child welfare and understand these kinds of stories that are funny, unusual and sometimes horrifying. I liked this book as a stand alone, but it definitely threw me for a loop when compared to what I'm used to reading in the series.

very poorly written
