Customer Reviews

Those who enjoy old-fashioned Westerns and who appreciate the early works of numerous famous Wild West authors will love the content of this set of classic, public domain works -- but not its organization. This is a HUGE and, therefore, VERY slow-loading set (consisting of some 393,529 Kindle Location Numbers in length); that may be problematic on some devices. The text is handsomely-formatted and there are active TOCs. The biggest flaw is that the main TOC is disorganized. It jumbles the bundle's contents by failing to list together all the works of any given author. (For example, to see what Zane Grey works are included, you must peruse the entire, lengthy TOC because they are scattered throughout and not grouped together.) In a bundle this large, a well-constructed, orderly TOC is a must; because of this one's disorganization, I have deducted 1-star from an otherwise 5-star bundle. The names and the fame of these authors are all obvious to those who are knowledgeable in this genre, and to those who are not, this is a golden opportunity to discover them. Admittedly, these books (mostly novels) will not appeal equally to everyone, and some stories will prove to be more enjoyable than others, but because of this bundle's sheer immensity and variety, there is bound to be something of genuine interest for almost everyone. I downloaded it as soon as I saw it, and my only disappointment -- but it is major one -- is with its disorganized TOC. I hope e-artnow will fix it; then this set will be just about 5-star perfect.
