The Broken World

Synopsis

An exciting sequel to The Marked Girl, filled with fantastical adventure and a quest to save two worlds. In the fantasy world of Caelum, Liv, Cedric, and Kat attempt to defeat an evil traitor and his army to save their families and the kingdom. Meanwhile, Liv's best friend and Cedric's frenemy stick in LA to try and figure out how to fix Los Angeles. The city, thanks to the open portals between LA and Caelum, is breaking down: the sky is orange, gravity isn't working right, and earthquakes shake the ground every few hours. When the crew reunites in LA, it's a race against time to restore the balance of magic between the two worlds. The adventure that started in Lindsey Klingele's The Marked Girl concludes in The Broken World!

Customer Reviews

"Will appeal strongly to many fans of urban fantasy.... This will be a satisfying addition to most high school libraries." (Voice of Youth Advocates (VOYA))
"A popcorn fantasy." (Kirkus Reviews)
"The Broken World is an easy-to-read novel with an exciting plot." (Lucero Rios, Teen Reviewer, VOYA)

Lindsey Klingele ended up in Los Angeles via airplane, not portal, coming from the fantastical land of Michigan. She has since worked in the writers' rooms of television shows such as ABC Family's The Lying Game and Twisted. The Marked Girl is Lindsey's first novel. You can visit her online at www.lindseyklingele.com.

Wonderful sequel to The Marked Girl following the cross-dimensional adventures of a group of teens traveling from L.A. to a magical 'swords and sorcery' world and back. If you haven't read The Marked Girl first I would highly recommend doing that before diving into this book.
