My Plane Trip (Dover Coloring Books)

Synopsis

The large, easy-to-color pictures in this book help youngsters prepare for an exciting plane trip. Twenty-two captioned illustrations – all designed to ease children through their first flight – depict a young couple and their two children at the airport, going through security checks, and waiting to board a plane; a jet being refueled; a pilot and copilot seated in the cockpit; flight attendants giving instructions; air traffic controllers tracking planes; and fifteen other scenes.

This coloring book does a great job giving an age appropriate review of the flying process. My kids (6 & 7) enjoyed reading this before their first flight, and coloring it during the flight.

If you have a little one who has recently travelled by air or will be soon, this coloring book is terrific.

didn't realize it was a coloring book but story line is informative - hope grands will like for first flight

Nice book to keep someone occupied.

Small but cute!

One of many of my son's books that we read on almost a daily basis.

Great for a first airplane ride.

Maybe I didn't pay close enough attention to the size dimensions, but I was expecting this to be small enough to take with us in the airport and on the plane, like the sticker books by the same company. It's too large for me to pack, but someone else might not think so. It's good for at home only, in my opinion.
