Roger Priddy left school at 16 with just one qualification in art. He went to Berkshire College of Art and Design and trained as an illustrator. His first job in children's books was working with the publisher Peter Usborne, at Usborne Publishing, and then he worked with Peter Kindersley at Dorling Kindersley, where he spent 16 years. Priddy became Creative Director of DK's Children's Division and was Managing Director of the children's mass market publisher Funfax when it was acquired by DK. In 2000, he created Priddy Books with John Sargent at St Martin's Press to create innovative and imaginative titles for children, from first books for babies through early reference titles for older children. Since then, over 30 million copies of Roger's 200 plus books have sold worldwide, with five of his books My Big Animal, My Big Truck, Happy Baby Words, Happy Baby Colors and Puppy and Friends each selling over one million copies. He is also the author of Big Board First 100 Words; Big Board Books Colors, ABC, Numbers; and Bright Baby Noisy Monsters. His creativity has been recognized with numerous industry awards. Priddy lives in London with his wife Zena and their four children.

I purchased this for my three grandchildren. I think it is very important for a child, or anyone for that matter, to learn a second language. My thought was that if it was presented to them in a fun way even when they are very young it would be easier for them as they got older. I began reading it to my two oldest ones as soon as I received it. They seemed very interested and kept their attention right away. The littlest one loved the soft fur touching it and petting it. That enabled me to read the book to her as she was occupied and seemed to be listening. In the end the two oldest ones actually are using some of the Spanish words they learned in the book. I would say it is a 100% success and am thrilled with how the children like it.

My son is loving this cute little book! He's 2 and has been learning Spanish and English at the same time and I think it's amazing that the book is both in English and Spanish so it makes it really easy for him to understand since he already knows some colors in English. This was also super cheap as well so that's always a plus since he's 2 and still chews on his books like a little Gremlin.

I love reading to my kiddos. When my son was younger, I bought him every book you could imagine. My daughter is only a few months old so I wanted to get her something simple with bright colors and was hoping that this book would be full of not only numbers but also cute pictures and especially different textures for her to touch. At her age, it's really good to introduce her to different textures. This book is adorable, but it really only has one kind of texture. My main reason for buying the book was because I thought it was going to be a "touch and feel" book, so I was a tiny bit disappointed. I do like that it is bilingual though.

This book is nice because it has the touchy feely pages, well...some pages are, but there are only 10 pages, the books are VERY small and I don't think they are worth buying, unless you really want 3-4 pages of touchy feely things. But it's nothing compared to the size of the other BeBe Listo books - Trucks, Animals, etc.. The other books have thick board pages and have more than 20 brightly colored pages.

We are raising our little one in a bilingual household so I was very excited to find these as all members of the house can read to him from it no matter which language they speak. The touch aspects he really likes. We started reading this to him when he was about 7 months old.

At 6 months, baby loves this book. Before I would read it to her and she would kind of pay attentions. Now she holds the book and will drag it around. She likes to lick the faux fur that sticks out the front of the book. It's fun to read, fun to touch. The images are high contrast and the colors pop, making it exciting for baby. Great board book to teach your child Spanish.

Not very many pages and touch and feel not on every page. However, hard to find bilingual books and good large pictures.

Annually we participate in the Christmas Adopt a Family. Books was what the mother had requested for the baby, so I can't say more than I like it, hoping that they baby gets enjoyment when it is read to him/her!
