Perfect. Three-hole punched and fits in my black binder perfectly so my vocal instructor can write in exercises for me.

Good quality manuscript paper. Easy to tear and to write on.

This is my favorite type of paper to compose with. It tears out cleanly, and there's no spiral to catch your wrist. There's plenty of space between lines for ledger lines.

The pages easily fall out, but I'm not picky especially since it was so cheap.

I like this paper. it is pretty. the quality is firm and thick. it provides plenty of lines to work with. I wish it had about 10 more pages for the cost Great bang for the buck. I buy these for my sax and improv students.

I use staff paper all the time so I found this pad is really great!The pages tear out really easy and everything :)

too small. dont get unless you have super vision i havent used it yet. not at all what i expected.
