Synopsis

In a new series from Wall Street Journal bestselling author Melinda Leigh, former prosecutor Morgan Dane faces the most personal - and deadly - case of her lifetime. After the devastating loss of her husband in Iraq, Morgan Dane returns to Scarlet Falls, seeking the comfort of her hometown. Now, surrounded by family, she's finally found peace and a promising career opportunity - until her babysitter is killed and her neighbor asks her to defend his son, Nick, who stands accused of the murder. Tessa was the ultimate girl next door, and the community is outraged by her death. But Morgan has known Nick for years and can't believe he's guilty, despite the damning evidence stacked against him. She asks her friend Lance Kruger, an ex-cop turned private eye, for help. Taking on the town, the police, and a zealous DA, Morgan and Lance plunge into the investigation, determined to find the real killer. But as they uncover secrets that rock the community, they become targets for the madman hiding in plain sight.

Customer Reviews

I just now finished "Say You're Sorry." This book kept me awake as I couldn't put it down. Just wanted to tell someone, anyone, what a good book. So well written! I'll write a review (or try to). The book was so good I'm not sure I'll do it justice...but I'll try. I fell in love with the characters...and wonder of wonders I didn't figure out who the culprit was until the author wanted me to. Most of the time I can figure it out but not this time. There was never a dull moment. I wish I didn't have to wait until September for "Her Last Goodbye" to see what Morgan Dane and Lance Kruger have to deal with.

I loved this book. Full of twists and turns that keep you guessing till the very end. Dark, suspenseful, thrilling. A must read . Melinda Leigh is a master at suspense. I'm hoping to see more Morgan Dane and her family. Thank you for a great read.

I loved this book. It was a thriller from beginning to end. Since it is Book 1 of the Morgan Dane series, if it gets better, or more thrilling, from here I won't be able to read them at night. As I told Mollie, my granddaughter, who sent me a text yesterday (5/15/17) telling me the paper she wrote for English (and which I edited) netted her a 100, I love it when a teacher recognizes a perfect paper when she reads one. This is a 100 book. Morgan Dane is an attorney who has had a stellar career as a deputy prosecutor. She and her husband, a military man stationed in Iraq, have three young daughters. Then, Morgan finds herself a widow responsible for raising her three young girls alone, Struggling to cope, she returns home and moves into the house with her father. She has finally decided it is time to go back to work and has agreed to work in the local prosecuting attorney's office. Then the young girl who occasionally babysits for her is found dead and their neighbor, Nick, the teenaged boy who plays chess with her dad and reads bedtime stories to her girls, is accused of the murder. Since Nick and his father don't have the money to hire a competent attorney, they ask Morgan to represent him. She realizes this is the other side of the "legal aisle" from the job she just said she would accept, but she feels compelled to do it. This story has it all. A crazy killer, a young murder victim, whose last words to the grandparents who have raised her since her parents died were angry words, a young boy who lives with his father and helps with his dad's landscaping business, and who has never shown any criminal tendencies, but is now accused of murder, a missing teenaged girl, and a private detective hired to look for a missing teenager - there are connections between the missing girl, the dead girl, and the former prosecuting attorney who is now considering representing the accused murderer. Melinda Leigh is great at writing thrillers with a touch of romance. If you like mysteries, you'll love this book. If you like a human-interest story with a touch of romance, you'll love this book. If you like reading, you'll love this book. I can't recommend it highly enough.

* spoiler alert * Another good one by Melinda Leigh. I know I can always count on her for a good romantic suspense novel. The storyline was captivating and kept the reader guessing. Spoiler ahead: the one thing that I always look forward to is the sex scene - I patiently waited the whole book for it and never got it!! (Edited - I just realized there is another book - she couldn't give it all away in book one I guess haha). Other than the lack of the sexual frustration - pick this book up!

just finished reading it and can't wait for the next one to come out. It was a great book and I couldn't put it down. I kept getting interrupted and finally had to tell everyone to leave me alone. it is a book well worth reading. I recommend it to anyone who wants a good suspense book.

A really great start to a new series! This murder mystery was realistic, intricate and compelling -- I didn't want to stop. I liked the portrayal of the various characters and felt the varied facets of their lives were a major contribution to the story. As I read the story, I found the writing so vivid, I could even visualize the chemistry between the two main characters! I will definitely watch for more from this series. I have enjoyed all her books and I'm very pleased this author has started a new series.

The story kept me guessing til the end..kept going back and forth with who done it..and when it finally was coming together man was really so sad that someone went through what happened and no one knew..won't say more..Great book, great read..Looking for the next Morgan Dane book..love Lance too.Great team can't forget Sharpe

I really love all of Melinda Leigh's books. She has a great talent for combining intrigue, twists, and romance. Her Last Goodbye is no exception. Clare Dane is a really great character, and I love Lance and Sharp. I can't wait to spend more time with them...and Nick! I need to know Nick and Bud are okay
