Father Joseph Champlin (1930-2008) was a prolific author, world traveler, lecturer, and passionate theologian. Ordained in 1956, Father Champlin was the pastor at several churches; at the time of his death, he was the sacramental priest at Our Lady of Good Counsel in Warners, New York. Over the years he touched thousands of lives, writing fifty books, traveling more than two million miles around the world, and founding the Guardian Angel Society, a nonprofit organization that helps needy children with their educational needs. In 1972 he served as associate director in the Secretariat for the Liturgy of what was then called the National Conference of Catholic Bishops in Washington, DC, and he spent a year at the Pontifical North American College in Rome, Italy. Father Champlin devoted his life to caring for people and showing the compassion and forgiveness that Christ's love and God's grace provides. We are thankful that Father Champlin's magnificent work and dedication to Christ's teachings live on through his wonderful books.

A local parish in my area used this booklet for the stations of the cross on Good Friday. I found it to be a great spiritual experience, since all of the stations are drawn from directly from scripture references. I purchased a copy for my Kindle so that I have for my next Lenten journey.

As always words by St John Paul are always inspiring. This book is no exception. A good book to add to one's other books on the stations.

Excellent meditation of the suffering Jesus endured for us guided by John Paul II. I recommend with all my heart.

The stations of the cross remind us of the agony of Jesus from betrayal to the cross. These stations need more focus on the similarities between the agony of Jesus and the agony we experience in life.

This really helped during lent.

I love this booklet. I carry it everywhere and have gifted it at least 3 times. The meditations are are gospel oriented and thought-provoking. I consider this to be a short example of what divine literature should be. Allowing us a gateway to prayer that is biblically based, meditative, and allows God to draw us closer to Him with our puny efforts. this gets a rare 5 star rating from me and you will get your few dollars worth many times over. Soli Deo Gloria,

This is a great devotional for use during Lent or the whole year. If you love PJP II, this devotion will feel familiar -it uses his words.

This was quite different than other prayers but is more accurate to me. I had to get use to it but that was easy.
