Synopsis

A RIVETING PARANORMAL ROMANCE from USA Today Bestselling author, Dannika Dark. Time is running out...Kane never believed in things like fate or karma. Not until the night he took a life. A secret society of immortals lives within the human world. Kane is one of them--a Sensor who experiences emotional energy through touch. But despite his good looks and easy-going personality, Kane lives a solitary life. Unlike other Sensors, he is unnaturally hypersensitive. Touch brings pain. Fate throws a curveball when a woman's life is placed in his hands. Kane is suddenly faced with making a choice, and each comes with a consequence that will wreck him forever. Time is not on his side. Will she be his salvation, or his ruination? Closer is a 32,000 word Novella that can be read as a stand-alone. This character is tied to and briefly appears in the MAGERI SERIES. What a fascinating read. This is quite an original story by Dannika Dark. There has never been a more interesting first-meet than the one Kane and Caroline had, and what a way to find your soul mate and fall in love. I wasn't sure what to think when I first started this book. A book where 90% of the story takes place inside one of the character's head seems risky or boring. Not at all. This book was really good. The vulnerability that each character showed, the willingness to share with another at the most intimate level was lovely. The unique setting actually increased their intimacy and sped it up. In most cases it would be impossible to believe that two people could become so close, fall in love in only a few hours, but not here. Kane and Caroline shared intimate stories, feelings, and emotions; shared things with each other that they had never shared with another soul. They shared a lifetime in a few hours. It was a connection at the most basic level and it was profound. This made for a beautiful story. Credit needs to go to the author. Dannika handled the characters and their conversations brilliantly. Any misstep and the book could have been cheesy or trite, but instead was touching. You really hope for the impossible for these two. Well done and so entertaining.

This was a very different kind of novel from Dannika Dark, with most of the adventures happening to Kane and Caroline after she is injured and has fallen into a coma. The alternate reality their abilities creates gives them time to meet, get to know one another on a heart-to-heart level, and to build an incredible foundation for love. We had met Kane briefly in the Mageri Series and this novella adds depth to his backstory. Kane is a dedicated loner, never giving his heart to anyone except his human sister, Sunny. His secrets about being a Sensor have distanced him from the people he loves, making his life difficult. When Caroline is attacked and Kane kills the man who hurt her, their lives become tangled in very complicated ways. She is unconscious, in a coma, yet when Kane touches her his abilities take him into the world created by her mind. Although a shorter novel than most of Ms. Dark's books, Closer delivers a story with heart and impact.

If you read the Mageri series then you already know Kane is Sunny's brother. The jail scene in the last book has always been on my mind. Why Kane? Why the girl. Even the first time I read the books it was always a question I wanted to know. Well if I had known Closer was going to give me those answers I would have picked it up a heck of a lot faster than I did. Kane a Sensor, who knew, I won't give you details it's a short story so pick it up. But I hope to see a reunion with Sunny and the twins and Uncle Kane. This novella really ties in that whole jail scene and why it was or had to be Kane. Can we just lock Dannika in a room so she can give us more of these amazing characters? Is that asking too much? lol Yeah I know it is but damn this just makes me want to have more, more, more. Again great narration! Can't say enough good things about Nicole Poole's performance. All my Reviews are 100% honest and my own.

You couldn't get much closer to someone then to be in their head, communicating in the "dark".....But this is what most of the book is....Kane inside Caroline's head-space while she is dying from loss of blood, a skull fracture, etc. This was a sensitive, serious book, but there were a few funny parts to balance it out!

I really liked this book. Fate brings together two lonely and tormented souls. Their start is not easy, but love is hard to resist. I highly recommend this book as well as the authors other series. Closer is a stand alone novella that is based in the same world of the Mageri series, but is not part of the Mageri series.

I love Danika Darks style of writing and characters so she has quickly become a favorite of mine. I was really glad to see that she used the same world as her Mage series and even made it about Sunnys brother Kane. He is a Sensor but has never really learned how to use his power due to being raised by human parents. Because of this he has kept to himself and become a loner. He meets Carolyn in a completely new kind of way. No spoilers needed so you need to read to find out how. It was a really different kind of paranormal story. I just wish it was longer or had an epilogue. However, since he is Sunnys brother, hopefully he will show up in the Mage series in some way. Good novella Ms. Dark!

what a short, beautiful read. I do not know why I was hesitant to read this. Maybe because I knew it was only a short (89 pages) novella? Or that I would be heavily invested in these characters in a few hours? Well that's exactly what the freak happened!! Kane and Caroline's love blossoms quick, but steady. Readers get an insight on both Kane and Caroline. When Kane said goodbye to Caroline, my heart made a :(face....just, just sigh We do, however, get a HEA. Thank God!! loved, loved it! But I was left with craving more

This was an interesting read. The budding romance of two people in such dire straights who are what can be termed 'losers' and how this lends each of them a strength that surprises both characters is quite thought provoking. It really is in the eye of the beholder and it certainly made me think. A good read by a very good writer!
