Customer Reviews

Well-illustrated with color photographs and meaningful maps, the new edition offers up-to-date information about new whitewater opportunities on 37 rivers. -- Albuquerque Journal, January 25, 2001

Tom Robey started canoeing at age six on the Passaic River in New Jersey. He made his first kayak trip in 1977 and his first trip to Mexico in November 1981. He has paddled rivers all over the United States, Europe and Mexico.

Good descriptions

A useful book you must have if you're going paddling in Mexico. That being said, take everything you read with a grain of salt and scout anywhere you can't see the next safe eddy.
