Hail Mary: Book 8 Last Play Romances: (A Bachelor Billionaire Companion)

Synopsis

Enjoy this fast-paced romance by best-selling author, Taylor Hart. Logan Slade, quarterback for the Los Angeles Wave, likes being the center of attention, likes having his movie star fiancée vlog about their glitzy life, and likes letting everyone on his team know he's the top dog. When he takes a hit during a practice scrimmage that puts him in a coma, he never would have expected to wake up and not remember the last eight years of his life. The tenacious and recently divorced, Paris Ford, couldn't believe her high school sweetheart uttered her name on national television right before going into a coma. They'd been over a long time and even though he's one of her biggest clients, she doesn't want or need him in her life. Too bad he shows up at her grandfather's old cabin—the one she's hiding out in—and too bad he kisses her. Good thing she tells him to go away. Logan's never been good at taking no for an answer and after spending a night banned to the boathouse, he finally convinces Paris—with a bit of blackmail—to help him remember his life. After all, he needs answers and she's the only one who can give them to him. When the trip down memory lane becomes more complicated with feelings and attractions that were supposed to be buried, they have to make a choice—let go of the past or try one last hail mary. This book also contains a sneak peak of 'The Lone Star Groom: Bachelor Billionaire Romances.'

Hail Mary is the most powerful book I've read in a while! If you only read one Taylor Hart book, read this one. Hart made me take a look back at my 18-year old self and think about how much different my life is than I planned back then. This book stuck with me for a long time after I first read it, and it's the first one in this genre I felt like picking up and reading again right after I finished it! A touching romance that will make you stop and take a look at your life.

Logan may be a rich guy but he's lost all the things that were most important in his life. The story is a sad one of 3 friends whose lives are all broken due to bad choices. A concussion gives Logan a chance to find himself and his true love again, but can he keep Paris in his life when he regains his memories? The author does a great job of letting the reader see the emotional turmoil that Paris suffers as the story slowly unfolds. The story has a unique framework and an underlying message of forgiveness.

Once again Taylor Hart has given us a wonderful story of love and forgiveness and redemption and faith. I really enjoyed this story because it was one where forgiveness was one of the main topics and God's forgiveness being extended to us allowing us to forgive others also.

Yay for another Last Play romance! This may be my favorite series of all time and Logan and Paris' story was touching, fun, and so romantic. This author just knows how to write romance!

I enjoyed this book. The writing was good and the storyline was fun. I love happily ever after and this book gave me that. A light, fun read.

This was another great book in the Bachelor Billionaire series. It was a clean romance that touches on love and forgiveness.

- Joel was thinking today that in some games you don't see a way out of losing. The team's been stinking it up, you're behind, it's the end of the game, and then it's like the field clears and there's this perfect opportunity and I just let the ball go and let it ride and bam! It hits the end zone and we win the game. And that's what's happening now. His eyes misted. Just like that championship game I missed. But this time, Pearl, I'm here. This is it. This is where we can change things. We can do it differently. Great story! I could see this as a Hallmark movie. I'm not a football fan by any stretch of the imagination, but Taylor Hart wrote this story in such a way that I understood all of the terms. There are several characters from previous books linked in here but it doesn't impede the story if you haven't read the previous books. There aren't any real big twists in the plot and it is quite predictable but it's a fun, clean romance and well worth picking up. I highly recommend it.

So dang good. I love these deep, fast, sweet romances. Great for a summer read. I love the forgiveness and letting go of the past. I also am partial to this story because I was in an accident and the only reason I didn't go into a coma was because the lady in the ambulance kept slapping me awake to which I am grateful. When I came to though I had memory loss from childhood up. I still don't have the year prior to the accident but I had a boyfriend at the time and to this day still don't know why I was with him at the time. Funny now, but it freaked me out then. So I totally connected with him. Great story.
