Food Fight (Strip Mall Series Book 1)

Synopsis

FOOD FIGHT is the first book in a new romantic comedy duology. Each book in the Strip Mall series contains two separate stories from the same universe. No cliffhangers... just a lot of laughs and some really hot sex!
BANANAS AND DONUTS: It's a food fight of epic proportions when this not-so-sweet baker gets her hands on a gorgeous grocer's goods.
BAGELS AND BRATS: A buff butcher bites off more than he can chew when he "meats" the vegan vixen next door. *Intended for immature audiences 18+

These are two hilarious short reads and little dirty but funny! One story is about a baker and the guy next door the hate each other or do they and the other is a butcher and a vegan! These two authors teamed together and wrote a hilarious erotic comedy and I loved it!!!

If you're looking for a highly entertaining and erotic read full of witty puns and perfectly timed humor, look no further!

Omg, y'all are sooooo dirty! I love it!!! I laughed out loud multiple times during both parts of the book.

Bananas and Donuts by T. Torrid
Talk about hot...and I'm not referring to the donuts. This duo is blazing. Hot, steamy and leaves you panting for more. (Or B.O.B.) The temp may be steady in the ovens of this bakery but these two clash and cause a rapid increase... (get it rapid increase...the dough to rise...) I am hooked on this series with just the first story in the first duology. I also know to be prepared for the heat. Hot Damn!
Bagels and Brats by Heather Ohhh
Seriously a study in the ridiculous...As a vegetarian with a sense of humor, it's my duty this is freaking funny and hot as tofu...(The shirt is priceless). I love the wildly inappropriate shirts and comments. How can you not stop chuckling!? Don't get me wrong though Bagels and Brats has all the "filler" too. Just watch out because they like to "slip the meat" references everywhere. Lol, I'm still chuckling. Sexy and funny make the best kind of fun. Oh and best home made movie ever....well the lines were classic at least.

Review on Bananas & Donuts by T. Torrid
Bananas and Donuts was full of laughter, innuendos and lots of sexual tension. From the first chapter I was almost in tears with the nicknames Stefanie and Jesse were calling each other. The pent up anger definitely had some lust infused. Stefanie Keefe owns a bakery in Rimmer, Pennsylvania which happens to be right next door to Jesse Miller's market. The two hate each other. Or so it may seem. Until one day the sexual tension is way too much and finally it happens. They decided to be beneficial. Just some hot blow off some steam fun. Nothing serious. Except every time they do the dirty their walls are being torn down until maybe they've been blind all along about their "hate" for each other and maybe it was just a cover up for something else.
Review on Bagels & Brats by Heather Ohhh
Just like Bananas and Donuts, Bagels & Brats is fast paced and a quick read. Unlike the first half in a females point of view we get to read the males story in a different situation. Peter Johnson's family are butchers and Pete finally has his own location, right next to a vegan store. Valerie Cooter the Vegan is definitely in his site even if he is warned by her and her boss to stay away. Yet Johnson can't help but think with his Johnson and want Valerie's voluptuous vegan cooter. (Thought I was going to use the V word there huh) So many crude and hilarious innuendos that are used in this book that are quite funny or puny " " which are my favorite " " All and all I recommend this laugh out loud, very steamy and fast paced book!

Both authors know how to write a quick and to the point book and I loved it.

Hysterically funny and flirty stories! I don't think I've read these two authors original books but I wish I had. These alter egos are two I will definitely be reading more of when they write more. Each story was completely opposites attract but funny also. With a title like Food Fight, you have no idea where the stories might take you but these were worth it. 2 Hot, funny, flirty stories in one! I received this ARC provided by the author/ publisher in exchange for an unbiased opinion. No type of compensation was made. There is no relationship/affiliation between the reviewer and the author/publisher.

So, this is my first read by either of these authors and I must say that I really enjoyed it. If you are in the mood for a quick read and a few laughs, I would totally recommend Food Fight. I believe that this installment is the beginning of something quite good, but my only complaint is I wanted more "Bananas and Donuts". Stephanie Mazo Keefe is a divorcee that has moved to Pennsylvania for a fresh start, determined to make her bakery a success, and she doesn't need a man to tell her anything. Especially that smarmy, manwhore that thinks he's God's gift, Jesse Miller. Jesse runs a fruit market next door to Stephanie and thinks that she is uptight and takes everything too serious and needs to loosen up. With almost every conversation they go toe-to-toe with one another, but the tension soon turns sexual. Soon, they give into the tension between them and let loose in the sheets, but will this change things between them or not? Bagels and Brats: Peter Johnson is in Pennsylvania for a fresh start after being caught cheating on his first girlfriend and her father turning his once pristine reputation into minced meat. So, he's off with his BFF, Jerome, to start his own butcher shop. Valerie Cooter works in the vegan bagel shop next to Peter, but she is not impressed with the accidental meat delivery she is taking over to Peter's shop. Peter is instantly attracted, but Valerie thwarts his obvious and crass flirting. Is there any way he can convince this devout vegan to take his meat?  I voluntarily read an advanced review copy of this book in exchange for an honest review **
