Customer Reviews

The biggest thing to consider is that Lithuanian custom requires that you bring something to your host family. I had to do it several times, And, when I forgot the gift that I had brought from the US, I bought flowers. I remembered from the book that you give an odd number of flowers not even number of flowers. Even numbers and white flowers are for funerals. I chose to give 3 red roses for the time being and later give them the Vera Bradley wallets I brought from the US, I also found the history to be very interesting. I even visited the holocaust memorial in Kaunas.

Great books for travel. I used this in Lithuania and even my country guide didn't know a few things this book had. It was a perfect prep for the trip, and made you understand what is behind some of the cultural experiences.

An informative & interesting quick read!

Very superficial, lot of the verbiage is akin to the your newspaper horoscope it could apply to anything. Errors about food and culture abound. This is a series of canned programs. I bought it for a friend to answer some questions, and I hoped would be interested enough to visit Lithuania. I not giving it to him as it is worthless.

For a little book, this gem is full of interesting information and neat little facts. It is a quick read but very worthwhile. Would recommend it for anyone wishing to travel to Lithuania or anyone with Lithuanian ancestry wanting to learn about their history.

The author's arrogant and conceited attitude is difficult to stomach. This reads like a teenager's book report on two semesters spent in Lithuania.
