Synopsis

NOW EXPANDED with BONUS MATERIAL "I want you to listen very carefully. According to the law, I own you. I am responsible for every facet of your life. I clothe, feed and shelter you. You do nothing without my knowledge or permission. Some men treat a marriage as a partnership; I am not one of those men. This is not a partnership. For generations the men in my family have chosen to honor this responsibility by controlling every aspect of their life. This is now your new life. You will be treated special, but I will control when and how you will be bathed, what you will wear, when you sleep, what you eat. I will control everything. Do you understand me?" Such is Emmie's introduction to marriage with the mysterious man who shows up to claim her from an unhappy home not long after her eighteenth birthday. Lord Richard Burkewood was not looking for a traditional wife, but a young lady he can pamper, punish and train. "The Submission of Little Emmie" is a must-read debut for anyone who loves this genre.

Customer Reviews

This is the story of Emily. She is neglected by her stepfather and he, basically, sells her to Lord Richard Burkewood. Richard knew Emily's mother and when her mother knew she was dying, asked Richard to care for Emily, even though she knew how Burkewood men treated their wives. They didn't want wives, they wanted little girls. Emily was to become Richard's little girl. When she arrived at her new home, she was immediately treated as a little girl and stripped by her nanny. Emily resisted and she was spanked for her trouble. Eventually, she is dressed as a little girl and put down for a nap while immobilized by cuffs in a fetal position. Once awake, she is dressed, brought to her Papa and he explains some of what her life will be like now. He also tells her that she is now Emmie. This is a pretty harsh age-play story. It is non-consensual and Emmie does get punished pretty severely. But, there is also love developing between them. The punishments that Emmie gets are swift and very harsh. She is also subject to training that includes temperature taking and oral and anal training. Even though I squirmed a few times with the descriptions of the punishments, this is a very well written novella. I give it 5 stars.

I have read all of Ms. Blake's age-play books and this one suffers a beginners learning curve. Of all her heroes this one is the one who comes across as the most overbearing and also some reviewers are right it's comes across as extremely harsh and forced with a true non con element to it. That being said Emmie does like being his little girl and the freedom not to "be in charge" like other readers I wished he would have taken the time to really find a bond with Emmie instead of constantly punishing her for small infractions real or made up. I enjoyed seeing them in a later book.

This is my first book by Zoe Blake and it was amazing. She described exactly how a little becomes accustomed to having a daddy and a nanny and how she learns that once she is chosen to be her daddy's little she just has to accept it. I could not put it down. At the beginning Emmie did not understand what was happening to her or why she was at her new home, but in the end she accepted her new life and loved her daddy

18 year old Emmie is wed to Lord Richard Burkewood without ever meeting him. She is given in exchange for helping clear the debts owed by her opium abusing step-father. She spends her mornings in embarrassing lessons from her nanny and her afternoons in explicit sexual training by her new Papa. Though she is totally unprepared for her lessons, she finds that she is finding pleasure in them as well as in the total freedom from responsibilities allowed her as her Papa's little girl. The punishments are quick and harsh every time she misbehaves.. Though she is placed into her Papa's bed every evening, she is also returned to her nursery every night which made me question the true connection of the two main characters. I felt the story was a bit rushed and ended very abruptly. I did appreciate the author's use of description to set her surroundings. If you like an age-play novel with very strict training, you should enjoy this one.

I read this book because its about sex in dark dirty ways. I was looking for something wrong and fun, I got it with this tale. I love it. No, it may not be for everyone but I am the kind of woman who enjoys these kind of twisted dirty tales. Thanks Zoe Blake I can count you for a fun dirty tale.

I love reading age play genres because of the love and support of their partners. This book is not one of those. It's completely non-consensual, abusive and humiliating. She is constantly beaten and humiliated and pretty much raped through out. Not a fan.

I didn't like that Emily was basically kept as a slave and unwillingly isolated from the real world. You need balance for this lifestyle to work.

Emmie has been living with her horrid step-father and Lord Richard steps in. While the story seems at bit harsh at time it is clear that Lord Richard loves his Emmie and as time comes by she is more and more content with her live and her love.
