Beautifully drawn, my 2 year old loves it and wants to hear it again and again! He loves to look at the pictures by himself, too. It's a special book, a true classic.

Adorable pictures! Perfect for a little boy who loves vehicles of all kinds (I've got two boys and another being born next month)! Too bad it is titled specifically for boys though because I think little girls would also love all the fun vehicles!

Cute book

My 18 month old loves this book. The pages are thicker than regular paper but not thick enough to prevent my toddler from tearing the pages. He looks forward to the last page where we sing the abc's. I just hoped the pages were thicker.

Nice way to explore the alphabet with the "boy" stuff! Made well and is holding up quite nicely with ALL the use.

I have a three-year-old and he loves this book. I had been reading Dr. Seuss's ABC book to him for a while, and he'd enjoyed the crazy drawings and fun rhymes that fill every Dr. Seuss book. But he'd seemed to have gotten used to that one and while searching as his third B-Day neared I came across this one. He loves all kinds of tractors and trucks and planes and boats, etc., and this book is full of them. At bedtime, he'll say "I want to read the tractor book," in reference to this one. The artwork is great, very clear and colorful and he cannot get enough. In the couple of months since ordering this book, he's learned several new letters that he'll point out on traffic signs, billboards, and in other books. "Look Daddy, there's a W!" Many of the letters had become just a part of the story in the Dr. Seuss book, but this seemed to really spark his learning of the alphabet. The book itself is of good quality. Durable as is needed for a three-year-old. Good binding, and thick pages. For parents of toddler boys I cannot recommend this book highly enough. So far one of the best purchases I've made on .
