Synopsis

A literary fantasy about war, racial identity and first love. eBook available. Cursed. Betrayed. Imprisoned. Only love can set her free... Cursed: Frost is possessed by a wolf demon that brings death everywhere she goes. Betrayed: On fleeing her home, Frost is captured by a band of warriors sworn to protect their country from rebel fighters. Imprisoned: Trapped until she can prove she is not an enemy, Frost grows close to the warriors' charismatic leader, Luca, and his second in command, the tortured Arian. Torn between these two very different men, Frost fears she may not be able to protect either of them ... from herself.

Zoe Marriott lives in Grimsby, Lincolnshire with two cats, named Echo and Hero, and the Devil Hound, otherwise known as Finn. FrostFire is her fourth novel. www.zoemarriott.com

Frost is a girl who has always been scared of killing her friends. She finds two kinds of love, and she also finds herself. It's one of the best Young Adult books I've ever read. A journey to become the person you were meant to be. That's the moral of the story. There are no words good enough to describe it.

Elegantly written and a definite page turner. The main characters emotions are described and played into so well.

the book was in excellent condition, but the writing itself was less than spectacular.

Daughter (age 17) is enjoying reading this.
