Customer Reviews

Being gluten intolerant or sensitive is quite a challenge, especially around Holiday time. This cookbook includes easy to follow recipes including the Cream of Mushroom Soup for Green Bean Casserole. Just because one is intolerant does not mean they have to be deprived!

I have just downloaded this e-book and I already see some recipes that are going onto my "try" list. The cornbread recipe looks delish--and I was happy to see a note in the earlier part of the book about a nondairy cream substitute that doesn't require special ingredients. I personally would not be able to use as much sugar as recommended in a couple of recipes, but I think the recipes can be adapted. As a whole, the book gives me a "can-do" feeling about making a special GF meal that anyone could enjoy!

This book is a delicious way for gluten free thanksgiving, or any time! And all so simple to achieve delicious gf dishes!

Mary Francis has put together all the recipes for a full "traditional Thanksgiving" meal. This is a great guide for anyone preparing an outstanding meal for a crowd whether it is for a holiday or just a large family dinner. Instructions are complete for preparing a delicious, moist turkey and all the trimmings all gluten free, of course. For those not used to such preparations, this is a great guide. For those of us experienced at some of this, it is still a neat idea to have it all in one place.

Some good recipes here.

A great holiday cookbook that is good for all seasons! Mary Frances is a unique writer in that she teaches the "Why's" and "Wherefore's" of cooking...and it is all gluten free. Can't use a specific product? No Problem! Mary Frances teaches you how to substitute. Everything I have made has been a success! Thank you, Mary Frances! Be sure to check out her website and Cooking School at glutenfreecookingschool.com

This book is great for anyone already gluten free, or just a beginner like me. She makes it easy, with specific recipes that don't require a complete understanding of all the GF options. And the recipes all sound so good! Looking forward to them.

We don't typically eat GF, but oh my gosh, Mary Frances inspired me to try it and yes, even though it's not a "necessary" in our home, I have tried some of her recipes and they are TO DIE FOR! Thanksgiving, with it's typical stuffing and pie "traditions", can be a hard one to eat GF. No more, not with her awesome new book. Thank you Mary Frances!!
