"The most amazing news to be announced to the human race is that God, in His unconditional love for us, has called us to participate in the most intimate relationship and unbreakable bond known among men...." --Malcolm Smith Discover the power of the blood covenant that not only seals your eternal destiny, but can open up a new world of faith and adventure like you've never known!

Malcolm Smith was born in London, England. He came to the United States in 1964. While the pastor of a church in Brooklyn, New York, his ministry was radically changed by the revelation that the heart of the gospel was found in the unconditional love of God, expressed to mankind through Jesus Christ in the covenant. He became involved in teaching the charismatic renewal in the 1960s and 70s and was known throughout the world to many thousands on radio, TV, and through seminars and retreats. He is currently a bishop in the Community of the Holy Spirit. He is based in San Antonio, Texas, where with his wife, Nancy, heads of the Zoe Community of the Holy Spirit. There, he conducts retreats, seminars, and gives spiritual direction.

For a long time now, I have been feeling that many of us Christians are not walking in the victory that our Precious Lord Jesus won for us. I believe after reading this book, that it is because we do not understand the new Covenant made through our Covenant Head, the Lord Jesus and our heavenly Father. If we could grab hold of that knowledge, look out! It would bring us into such a personal/intimate relationship with the Triune God, and through the power of the Holy Spirit, we would be more than conquerors! Just want all my brothers and sisters in Christ to know that you are in my prayers. God bless you, Love, Tina, your sister in Christ :)

This book is the most influential book on my thinking as a Christian second to the actual Bible. Have you ever tried to make heads or tails of theories of God's being, what motivates him, why he loves us and exactly what that means. The scripture is used in context with cross references for validation. This should be given to every skeptic and seeker as a beginners guide to getting to learn the character and commitment of God as a triune being in relation to us. His children.

When I first ordered this book in April 2010 I wasn't a Happy Camper. It didn't have anything to do with the content of the book. I couldn't not understand how you could sell one book under two separate titles. However, I noticed that the second book is no longer being offered. Trust me, I am past that now. This book is absolutely the second best I have ever read. Of course, nothing can top the Bible. I have purchased 4 additional books since that time and it has impacted the lives of each person that have received it. This book demonstrates the heart of God in such a simple but profound way. There have been so many things that have taken place since studying this book. I have witness to so many people from a covenant perspective and the Gifts of the Spirit have operated through me to bless other people. I get it! It's hard to explain but this book has really connected the dots for me in so many ways. I am on my forth reading of the book and I am sure this is what I will be studying for the rest of the year. If you practice what is taught you will be blessed beyond your wildest dreams. God is an awesome God!!

This is my first Malcolm Smith book and I will probably read this over and over again alongside the Bible until the truth of God's unconditional love sinks in. I heard a sermon by Tim Keller called "The Covenant Relationship" and it deepened my understanding of the gospel and some old habits I had been holding on to fell away after hearing that sermon. In the sermon Keller talks about taking a theology course in grad school that covered Old Testament covenants and how that course grew his faith. After hearing that, I started searching for a book about covenant theology and found this. This book is about God's unconditional love given to us and secured through covenants, with the last and new covenant being fulfilled through Christ and sealed by His blood. God's love for us is so overwhelming and I believe our understanding of His love is what ultimately changes us into devoted Christians who love Him in return.

This is a excellent book. It gives a complete understanding of the love of God. By explaining the Greek and/or Hebrew translation of various words Smith truly explains the Love God has for us. He says the Bible should not say old and new testaments but old covenant and new covenant.

This was a powerful and exciting teaching on the meaning of God's covenant relationship with His people and how we can know God's character and purpose through this understanding. Smith's style reminds me of C.S. Lewis for clarity and accessibility of the concepts.

I'm currently in a large group women's Bible study and we are studying the whole "Covenant" concept throughout God's Word. The author and teacher of the study has verbally and in her study listed this book as some of her research material. I highly recommend this book to all who thirst for God. I have been very blessed to go to a Church where His Word is taught and lived out. This book helps you understand more clearly the depth of God's love and commitment to his creation. Understanding culturally significant history of our predecessors in Christ will illuminate your understanding as you read, study and meditate on God's Word. Praise God and The Holy Spirit for the gifts and insights He gives to authors and teachers of His Word so that He can reveal more clearly His character and His love for us.

Malcolm does such a great job of unveiling covenant and how integral it is to all of our understanding of God and His great love and grace. I have wept several times as he has made real God's goodness and lovingkindness to me. One of the best books I've read on blood covenant. I recommend it highly.
