Rio De Janeiro: The Monocle Travel Guide Series

Synopsis

Carnaval and samba are just the start – kick back on the Copacabana, caipirinha in hand. Copacabana and Ipanema and Christ the Redeemer gazing down on it all: Rio de Janeiro has a reputation as a blessed beach and party paradise. But there’s more to Brazil – it’s second largest city than samba and carnaval. Explore a truly massive metropolis with a vibrant urban cultural scene and then break free into rainforests, sailing, or even hang-gliding. The city is a fever dream of possibilities. This guide will ensure that you can lose yourself in Rio without getting lost. The Monocle team will show you around their favorite haunts, from incredible urban vistas to boutiques and fine dining. Experience that Brazilian beat in hidden clubs and the open-air street parties that enliven the spirit of this diverse and cosmopolitan city. Monocle is sure you won’t want to leave. You just have to get there first.

Customer Reviews

The definitive guide to Rio. Beautifully presented with monocle flair this book is chock full of excellent recommendations but not devoid of the essentials. Complete with essays, unique and trustworthy stunning recommendations, you’ll be feeling like a Carioca in no time.

This is a book for young eyes. Parts of the text used a font so small as to be undecipherable to someone well past 50. Comparing it to Times Roman 8 point font on my computer, it seemed a bit smaller. To compound the problem, a lot of that small font text was in red or blue.
