God did not stop speaking to us 2000 years ago. We are now getting loving and insightful messages from the same spiritual source and in the same manner as the scriptures were delivered. Now, though, they are instantly recorded and transcribed, rather than passed by word of mouth for a hundred years before being written down. Today messages are also more direct and not couched in allegory or parables. I have seen Lee Carroll channel this information three times and am convinced that it is real. Even for skeptics, the information offers a clear explanation of the changes we are seeing in our planet and our lives.

Great book for anyone who's interested in learning more about ascension and our role in it. It's also much more detailed than previous Kryon books. The two things I found most interesting are 1) the info on how individual Akash affects our experiences in this incarnation, and 2) what channeling looks and feels like for Carroll. There's so much more to the book, but those 2 things alone made reading it worth it my time.

As usual, Kryon is a fairly tough read! This, like the others, is a book for studying rather than reading for leisure/pleasure. Having said that, it is a fund of information about this new, amazing age in which we now find ourselves. Kryon talks about perceived trends in businesses, e.g. "Big Pharma," insisting these are not prophesies, but rather insights garnered from the way things are currently. We are also informed about how our own bodies are "recalibrating" in order to adapt to the new. The book's message is one of hope & encouragement.

I'm biased. There is nothing Kryon channelled that I don't appreciate. I have read every single Kryon book by LeeCarroll. Each one appears at the right time for humanity. This one is right on schedule. A special thanks to Lee Carroll for being the conduit for this information. I am very grateful and appreciative of it. If you are sensitive to energy, I love how the "family" surrounds you with love when you read a Kryon book or listen to a channeling. Words can not describe.

This is the latest of the Kryon books, and since it's about 2013 and beyond, the information disclosed is very relevant to us now, in 2014. We are reminded that the new Mayan cycle (which began on 21st December 2012) represents "the potential for the highest consciousness that humanity has ever seen". Lee Carroll states:
"There is a great shift going on and a full recalibration of everything we have become used to as old souls and lightworkers on Earth. We are told that the rescue of the 33 miners in Chile in 2012 was a profound metaphor for the birth of mother energy in South America, and it was the FIRST MASS COMPASSIONATE EVENT that has affected the planet, and that represented the energy of joy and celebration. The energy of compassion changes the planet. No 33 is the last identified master number. The number 33 means "The Compassion of the Christ". The earthquake said to be the contributing factor to the mine's weakness happened at 3.33 a.m. After the cave-in, there were 33 days of drilling before the 33 miners were found. And there were many other such synchronicities in the story involving the number 33. In the channellings contained in the book, Kryon continually refers to us, the listeners and the readers, as old souls. This recalibration is about being able to stay on this planet in health and in happiness without drama or fear. Kryon informs us that old souls have such profound self-worth issues because for hundreds of years we've been "beat up". In an older energy, everything we did was met with resistance. Now this is changing. We are going to have to love ourselves more. There is a Universe inside us called cellular structure with trillions of pieces of DNA. These pieces are starting to react and are becoming ready for our instruction sets to be given. Self-worth is a programme! We have to tell ourselves what we want. "Dear cellular structure, I deserve to be here. This is my time. I'm important in the scheme of the earth. Get rid of inappropriate, emotional issues that keep me from moving forward into my beauty and power." Kryon sees a healed planet, eventually with new science as a planet where there is no permanent disease and where clean water is never an issue. He sees a time where all humans have electricity. Everyone will not become enlightened. We match bearers represent less than one-half of one percent of the human population. Very slowly. A softening is taking place, moving the energy of the planet more from the masculine into the feminine. It is balancing the imbalanced. Africa is going to be the "New World" within 75 years. Old energy dies "kicking and screaming". Old energy does not surrender ever. There will continue to be earthquakes, tsunamis, volcanoes, and storms. He tells us that Tesla and Einstein are "back". I presume he means they have reincarnated again. There is an interesting, short chapter by Lee Carroll on what it feels like to channel Kryon. The change of consciousness on this planet has changed the centre of the galaxy: There, there is a black hole, which is a duality. And it knows who we are. There's a discussion about evil. Kryon doesn't say evil doesn't exist, but that all the darkness on the planet has come from human beings. A note to us lightworkers as if we're constantly creating light, darkness does not have a chance. Darkness can't touch us. We're also illuminated about the Crystalline Grid. Everything that takes place on the planet, which humans create, stays here as energy. Every situation where energy is created stays in the Crystalline Grid. We are a piece of the soup of God, which "is measured in innumerable parts, yet all is one". When you are in touch with your Higher Self, you're in touch with all the parts of you. This is just an iota of the material presented in this latest Kryon book. In short, it is another exciting book that will keep our eyes glued to its pages. Most of the channellings are from 2012, but a few are from 2013. Enjoy this new Kryon book, which I highly recommend!

If you're looking for a scientific-feel-good-common sense sort of new age book, Kryon is one of the best. The warmth that comes across the pages is a testament to both Lee Carroll and the wonderful entity he channels called Kryon. The words are clear and relevant to our times today, and make more sense than the daily news paper as to what's going on right now on our planet. Instead of dwelling on the non-sensical actions of those in charge of our world today, go inside and meet the God-within as Kryon suggests, and live in peace and knowing. Know that "Your Higher-Self is unique in the galaxy and no other life has it. On this Earth, you do, and it is currently the only planet of free spiritual choice because of that. You are light." Location 2889 of 4438 "When you fear the dark, you give it your energy, don't you? So what is to fear?" location 2742 of 4438 There are so many answers as to what's going on right now, including the weather, the place our planet is in astrology, and Kryon even explains child prodigies. Simply and amazing book given that reads like a Master wrote it.

This is an insightful book which should help humans to know more about their energy and future. This is a deep book to inspire your taking time to spend with it and lessons to go forward to the future.
