Learn How to Quickly Solve Difficult LSAT Test Questions Here's a little "secret" about the LSAT: the LSAT is what we in the test preparation field call a "general aptitude" test. While some tests are looking to see what you already know, the purpose of the Law School Admission Test (LSAT), offered by the Law School Admissions Council (LSAC), is to test your ability to learn. The goal of the LSAT is to use a standardized testing process to create an objective assessment of a test taker's knowledge and skills. In other words, it's more about your ability to learn and process new information than what you know. This is good news for those who are serious about being prepared, because it boils down to a very simple strategy: You can succeed on the LSAT by preparing in depth for the different question types and being able to take difficult questions and break them down into easier parts that you can quickly solve. Repetition and thorough preparation is a process that rewards those who are serious about being prepared, which means that succeeding on the LSAT is within the reach of virtually anyone interested in learning how to handle any question they might face on test day. This is great news! It means that if you've been worried about your upcoming LSAT, you can rest easy IF you have a good strategy for knowing what to study and how to effectively use repetition to your advantage. But it also creates another set of problems. If you tried to memorize every single possible thing you can for the LSAT, the field of possible things to review would be so huge that you could not hope to cover everything in a reasonable time. That's why we created the LSAT Flashcard Study System: we have taken all of the possible topics and reduced them down to the hundreds of concepts you must know and provided an easy-to-use learning method to guarantee success on the LSAT. We wanted this system to be simple, effective, and fast so that you can succeed on your LSAT with a minimum amount of time spent preparing for it. --Here Are Some of the Features of Our LSAT Flashcard Study System Study after study has shown that repetition is the most effective form of learning- and nothing beats flashcards when it comes to making repetitive learning fun and fast Flashcards engage more of your senses in the learning process- you "compete" with yourself to see if you know the answers to the questions, and the flipping action gets you actively involved in the learning process Our cards are printed on heavy, bright white 67 lb. cover stock, and are laser printed at 1200 dpi on our industrial printers- these are professional-quality cards that will not smear or wear out with heavy usageWe cover the major content areas on the examOur flashcards include an edge that is micro-perforated, which means that you are much less likely to have a painful papercut on your fingers when moving quickly through the cardsOur cards are portable, making it easy for you to grab a few and study while waiting for the bus or the doctor, or anywhere where you have a spare moment that would otherwise be wastedOur cards are written in an easy to understand, straightforward style - we don't include any more technical jargon than what you need to pass the testThe cards are a generous size- 3.67 x 4.25 inches- they fit perfectly in your hands and they aren't so small that you have to use a magnifying glass to read tiny type- all questions and answers are in a normal-size print for easy studyingOur concept cards include in-depth explanations- you won't see any "one word" answers on our cards that require you to go get a textbook to understand why your answer was wrong- all of our cards include generous, thorough explanations so you not only get it right or wrong- but you also know why!We use a font created by Microsoft to make reading easier- this will enable you to absorb more information painlessly during late night study sessionsOur system enables you to study in small, digestible bits of information- unlike using boring textbooks, flashcards turn learning into a "game" you can play until you've mastered the materialIt's easy for a friend to help you study- they don't even have to know anything about the LSAT- if they can read, then they can quiz you with our flashcards!Now, let us explain what the LSAT Flashcard Study System is not. It is not a comprehensive review of your education, as there's no way we could fit that onto a single set of flashcards.Don't get us wrong: we're not saying that memorization alone will automatically result in a passing LSAT score- you have to have the ability to apply it as well. However, without the foundation of the core concepts, you cannot possibly hope to apply the information. After all, you can't apply what you don't know.LSAT Flashcard Study System is a compilation of the hundreds of critical concepts you must understand to pass the LSAT. Nothing more, nothing less. --If you think there's even the smallest chance that these flashcards will help you, you owe it to yourself to try them out. Don't let fear or doubt stand in the way of your opportunity to achieve the test score you need to fulfill your dreams.

These flashcards were my saving grace while preparing for the LSAT. I had no idea something like this even existed. I studied the LSAT prep guides, did online videos, read all sorts of things; but nothing was more helpful to me than these flashcards. My understanding of all the concepts were clearer, more focused, and easy to recall. I will not have my score back for a few weeks, however, regardless of the score these flashcards made studying a whole lot easier and more fun than when I was preparing to take the test the first time in 2011. I wish I had the cards back then. I may not have had to take the LSAT a 2nd time. If you're a visual learner and appreciate "CliffNotes" style reading/review, then get these cards. I wrote notes all over mine so they may not be as useful as a brand new set.

Ok this is my first review I'm getting ready for the test in February and these flash cards are great and useless. First of all, idk if the company made up some questions or took older tests but there are some questions out there that aren't included in the test today. The assumptions questions are totally left out (sufficient vs necessary) the weaken questions are there and I have to check for strengthen. There are some questions like we have to fill in the blanks with just a simple word. It doesn't ask you to complete the conclusion like a real LSAT test but to fill in the blank with a word???? There are also some mismatch un formulated question such as the inferences ones. I'm sorry but these questions aren't written on the LSAT. Also these flash cards are for practice don't expect to learn strategies with it. On the other hand the analytical reasoning is great but still go with what you're doing on strategy there are no explanation on the flash cards. The LR questions should be reevaluated. I'll look through them in order to see if this is like a test. I took approximately 30 prep test and I haven't seen any of these questions written like that in the flash cards Poor quality, typos, typos, and more typos. With the poor quality of the print I can't trust the answers.

These worked as needed, I ended up not really using them though...maybe they would work for some people. I don't think the questions are actually LSAT questions though..

I purchased the LSAT Flashcard Study System and so far it has been very helpful to me.

These flash cards are so very amazing. I love how in depth they go, they are most definitely helpful for the studying process!

Small print not enough explanation for questions and answers.

Spent $56 and can't open it on my kindle or computer
