Austin's writing makes the bible come alive! The book places the reader right in Jerusalem during turbulent times and illuminates the evil Assyrian warriors who terrorized countless kingdoms, using fear and torture to kill hundreds of thousands or force them into submission. King Hezekiah becomes the ruler of God's chosen people and must come to terms with how helpless he really is in the face of unspeakable evil. Austin's careful adherence to Scripture creates a powerful narrative! What a great read, you will come away from this book with a clearer understanding of what happened over 2000 years ago, as well as a deeper conviction of God's immeasurable power and deep love for us. Pastor David McGee

Austin's vivid writing makes the bible come alive! The book places the reader right in Jerusalem during turbulent times and illuminates the evil Assyrian warriors who terrorized countless kingdoms, using fear and torture to kill hundreds of thousands or force them into submission. King Hezekiah becomes the ruler of God's chosen people and must come to terms with how helpless he really is in the face of unspeakable evil. Experience King Hezekiah's journey as he moves from self-sufficiency and doubt into a deep faith and love for God. Austin's careful adherence to Scripture creates a powerful narrative. What a great way to learn history! The struggles of those in the Old Testament are essentially the same we face today--foolishness, pride, selfishness, hardness of heart, denial of our flaws and weaknesses, and a belief that we don't need God. Come away from this book with a clearer understanding of what happened over 2000 years ago, as well as a deeper conviction of God's immeasurable power and deep love for us.

The author brings to life the Old Testament history of Hezekiah, shedding light on the lives they may have led between the lines of the Word of God. She masterfully weaves the prophecies of Isaiah and the Psalms of David and Hezekiah (and others) into the lives and struggles of both the children of Judah and their bloodthirsty enemies. She brings to light our Father's divine purpose, His plan of redemption, His righteous judgement, and His mercy and love toward both His chosen people and us. Thank you for the gift of this series! What a blessing it has been!

I absolutely loved these books, all five of them. I had to get the other four books after reading her first on Chronicles of the Kings. Intrigue, historical, right on the mark, scriptural referencing, and enlightening. Lynn Austin has a way of putting you into the story, you are alive and experience what she is writing about. I love the Old Testament stories, but this series has brought the OT to a new level for me. I read the scriptures quoted in the books and you can see the story more fully. I actually got to where I wanted to go back and read Isaiah again. I am saving up so I can get her other books of this genre. Lynn Austin is a winner. Her books, Chronicles of the Kings, are outstanding. I added them to my favorites so I will be sure and read them again and again.

What an awesome read. This is the third Biblical, historical Christian Romance novel by Lynn Austin in the series of Chronicles of the Kings. This story is about Faith, ove, despair and redemption. This is a page Turner and a keeper. Again , Lynn Austin has out done herself.

This book is absolutely captivating, encouraging and edifying. I love the extent to which the word of God was incorporated and the direct references that were made to the scriptures. Not only does the reader enjoys a delightful story but it educates him or her of many of the kingdom principles which God expects/commands us to obey, for example FORGIVENESS. I love that Hezekiah responded in obedience to God in forgiving Hephzibah, his wife, despite of her perceived unpardonable sin. It reminds me of how much God loves us with an everlasting love - no matter what we have done He is still there waiting with open arms to receive and forgive us. I also love that it points out the detriments of unforgiveness. Unforgiveness leaves us vulnerable to the enemy and all his abuse which I address at length in my book "Breaking Silence: A Close Look at Divorce, Remarriage and Abuse". The bottom line is God and His Word is exalted throughout this book and that's a great achievement.

Once I started the book, I could not put it down. Wonderly written and full of historical facts. A must read.

If you're looking for an entertaining read that relies heavily on Biblical accounts, the series is excellent. There is, of course, fictionalization but only to make it an interesting read. The biblical accounts are kept true. Well worth the money and time!
