Beauty At Home

Synopsis

Style icon Aerin Lauder reveals what it means to live beautifully. Extravagant and fun to be around, Estée Lauder, Aerin's grandmother, loved jewelry and chocolate-covered marshmallows. She adored flowers and rooms full of exuberant patterns. When Aerin was a child, weekend visits with Estée meant ice-cream-and-late-night-TV adventures and spending time together at her grandmother's dressing-room table with its intriguing lipsticks and creams. From an early age, Aerin understood that Estée's passion for family was equal to her love of beauty. Now, Aerin has made this legacy her own. For the first time, she shares memories of the family celebrations and world travel that formed her sense of style. Aerin opens the doors to her New York apartment, where on any given night she might host a relaxed dinner with friends under a vintage French chandelier or, just as often, an impromptu get-together for her sons. Aerin also reveals how she preserved Estée's heritage in her former Hamptons home while adding her own twists. The traditions Aerin has created in her own family--from pool parties with her sons to walks along the beach collecting sea glass to breezy summer lunches--blend elegance and fun in equal measure. Throughout this book, evocative photographs by Simon Upton show Aerin's world in inspiring detail and enhance Aerin's insights into surrounding oneself with beauty and family in every aspect of life.

Very nice reading, with extremely beautiful pictures. Aerin Lauder has an extremely good taste regarding furniture and interior decoration, and she is also a very good storyteller, sharing some valuable thoughts regarding home, family and life. Lastly, the book is very well built, being a beautiful piece of decoration itself! Satisfaction guaranteed!

This is a neat and inspiring book. Unfortunately I have seen many of the pictures published in the book, so much is not new. The text is limited. No Colorado home pix either, which I was looking forward to.

Nice coffee table book. Love Aerin designs and especially the luxury feel of her gilded products.

I love the book and goes very well with my decoration.

Part memoir part style inspiration. While I may not like all her style choices or advice , it offers a solid guide to finding your own style while learning some techniques and tips. It spans generations and encompasses lots of different peoples tastes. I like that. Life is not one size fits all and this book recognizes that and inspires you to find your style, not just in a home, but also in life. It encourages you to take chances and dare. Aerin certainly created more than a house decoration book. I highly recommend it!

Classic and romantic

Fascinating and magical history leading to an inspiring and sophisticated mother and business woman.

Was expecting a bit more interior design details...
