Customer Reviews

WILLIAM ALDRICH is publisher of Chicagoland Gardening, a magazine he founded in 1995 to provide regionally focused gardening information. He is a certified Master Gardener and has been a garden writer for more than 20 years, mostly with the Chicago Tribune. Bill, a past-president of the Garden Writers Association, has written six Lone Pine gardening books designed for Midwest gardeners. DON WILLIAMSON, who has turned a passion for gardening into his life's work, has a varied background in landscaping, golf course construction and management and now garden writing. He also has extensive experience in the design and construction of both annual and perennial beds in formal landscape settings. Don has a degree in applied horticultural technology and professional certificates in turf management.

This book just has good photos but the descriptions are so good and it doesn't really tell you much in detail and that's what I wanted.

My daughter has this book, which I borrowed and hated to give back. Love the pictures and helpful info on care.

This book is everything I had expected it to be. It will help me get started in my landscape prep.

Great book and fast shipping.
