James A. Henretta is a Professor Emeritus of American History at the University of Maryland, College Park. His publications include "The Evolution of American Society, 1700-1815: An Interdisciplinary Analysis

Very nice book, for a rental I thought it would be fairly well used. But this book is brand new, not a single bent page or cover. I definitely recommend this seller.

It works perfectly for my online class and came without any issues! It is brand new and has no writing in it or torn pages! A lot cheaper than my school's bookstore!

I bought it for my brother and it fit the bill!!! Plus with s low prices it was a no brainer!! Thanks!!

It meet my expectation but not all, it would have been more benefit, if the important words was bold and italized.

Hi this is better in a digital format. Will I receive my access code to complete my course?

Ordered as a rental, great condition. This textbook wasn't like a traditional one, it's not that boring and its colorful.

Great book-learning well from it!
