Victory And The Dragon (Redwood Dragons Book 10)

Synopsis

THE SERIES FINALE IS HERE The Redwood Dragons and Falcon Cross Wizards are on the verge of a final, epic battle against the forces of evil. Will love and good prevail? Dragon shifter Noah Pars has spent the last several years spearheading the shifter-wizard alliance that is fighting against the evil dragon, Saul. Now, Saul has grown stronger than any of the alliance members could have imagined, and immediate action must be taken to stop himâor else! Noah devises a plan of action, and is all set to work that plan alone, when heâs forced by the commanders to work with one of the wizard soldiers. And not just any soldierâa soldier named Izzy Torres who, despite her undeniable beauty, is annoyingly timid. Noah doesnât have time to indulge petty fears, and he makes sure Izzy knows that he wonât be slowing down for her sake. But when Noahâs life is in danger and Izzy turns out to be braver than she seemed, Noah wonders if heâs underestimated how vital this pretty little wizard will be to victoryâand how strong the fire he feels for her is burning in his guarded dragon heart. Wizard Isabelle Torres, better known as Izzy, never wanted to be a soldier. Her life calling is medicine, and she much prefers saving lives as a doctor to fighting gory battles. But the raging war against evil left her little choice but to join in on the fight, and sheâs done her best to pull her weight on one dangerous mission after another. When a final battle looms, however, and sheâs confronted with the possibility of once again coming face-to-face with her worst nightmare, Saul, she canât quite keep up her brave front. She jumps at the chance to accompany Noah, a handsome but proud dragon shifter, on a mission that should keep her far away from the front lines, and far way from Saul. She quickly learns thereâs more to Noah than meets the eye, and finds herself falling for him. But before their budding romance can fully bloom, Izzy and Noah are thrown into the final sweeping battle against their worst enemy. Izzy must conquer her greatest fear and face Saul if Noah is to liveâand if good is to prevail. Luckily for her, Noah has inspired her to find courage deep within. But will it be enough? Can the dragons and wizards finally push back the forces of darkness? And will Izzy and Noah save each otherâs hearts and lives before itâs too late? Read this action-packed dragon shifter romance to find out! Victory and the Dragon is the tenth and final book in Sloane Meyers' Redwood Dragons Series. While this 38K word novella can easily be read as a standalone story, youâll likely enjoy reading all of the Redwood Dragons books. Please note, this novel is intended for mature audiences and contains explicit love scenes as well as adult language.

Customer Reviews

This was the best Dragon Series that I have ever read. Each of the ten books were a great love story with all the surprise and excitement of preparing for war. It also kept you excited to see who found their lifemate next. Sherry L Mortensen. sandlmortensen@yahoo.com Poo Loved how everything worked out for the dragons and the wizards. Imagine a little itty beeni person like Lizzy battling Sane the one person or thing she feared, but with her lifemate in danger she found the courage and endured as much as she could, then Noah did his part and saved her...love... it sure makes this series more interesting seeing all the dragons find their lifemate, although they didn't go into this war thinking about finding love....loved every minute of reading each book...big fan Winzie19.

She had done it again....so sad the end had come.....next series should be just as exciting to read, this is a great writer.

Sloane Meyers has married the shifter world and the magical realm beautifully in this series. Her characters are inspired. I loved reading all their stories as they met their lifemates and fell in love.

All the books in the series were great. I always like to sit and read the entire book. Needless I had several very late nights having to know what happened. Excellent series Sloane!
