Network Quarterly, October 1997 Money is one form of abundance that occupies most peoples minds at one time or another. When I read the preface, I discovered this book included channeled information. After reading it, I dont care who wrote it. Its good. It offers a common-sense, spiritualistic approach to creating what you want in your life. Aquarius, Sign of the Times, February 1998 If you were to ask a group of fifty people if they would like to be wealthy, chances are good that all would say yes. If you asked them what they'd do with the money, some would say they'd quit their jobs, travel or buy a bigger, better house. Still, many would say they'd change careers, do the work they've always wanted to do. Its a fact that a greater percentage of the planets population is working at ill-fitted jobs, and, they believe, ill-fated. But the truth is what you have and where you are today are the results of all the choices and decisions you have made, and many have been based on past programming rather than on the new unlimited thinking, as taken up in Sanaya Roman and Duane Packer's book Creating Money: Keys to Abundance. This book, filled with a wealth of advice channeled to the authors from their spirit guides, was first published ten years ago, and applies more than ever today. The New Times, March 1989. This book is about more than creating money, although that is the primary focus. Whether we like it or not, the Earth plane still uses money as the system of exchange of energy. Many people within the New Age have wonderful ideas they would like to implement but which are often foiled from the beginning partially due to lack of funding. The approach used in Creating Money is that in order to manifest many of our visions and dreams, money is needed and learning how to have money and use it to higher purposes is a good goal to attain. John Harricharan for Body Mind Spirit magazine, September/October 1988. Many books have been written about money and how to get it, but most times they are filled with impractical and theoretical ramblings. Creating Money by Sanaya Roman and Duane Packer is a refreshing change. The authors have created an extremely practical and useful book to assist anyone who has money problems. The book is divided into four sections, each dealing with certain aspects of the money problem, but all four blend together in such a way as to give the reader one of the most practical guides for becoming wealthy. Roman and Packer do not preach, but gently lead you through a myriad of universal truths that impact directly on your pocket book or bank account. A series of practice exercises combined with a number of worksheets (which the authors call playsheets) assist the reader in following the true essence of the manuscript and, at the same time, serve as a summary for some of the more important areas of focus. For all those who have ever had problems with money, for those who are struggling to make a living, or for those who simply would like to improve their quality of life, this book is a candidate for the Required Reading List. It should be re-read many times and occupy a prominent place on your bookshelf.

This book is NOT about money. it is more about what your value system is and what you want to do in life. If you ever watched Suzie Orman you will understand. Many times on Suzie's show her callers have issues around money but more about themselves. So it is with Duane and Sanaya's book. It is about who you are not what you want to buy. A must read for those wanting to manifest.

I wish I had bought this book a LOOOONG time ago. I think this is the best book I have ever bought on manifesting and I have so many. I didn't think I would ever buy another book on manifesting except the customer reviews compelled me to try it. I'm so glad I did. I Love, Love, Love this book!

Thank you another great book by Orin and DaBen. Reading this book was journey from poverty thinking to prosperity thinking. I was told the same idea about money and prosperity before from other books but this book helped me to use the ideas here and now, and I actually felt the differences. No more poverty thinking therefore no more poverty experience for me. I am on my way to mastery for abundance.

Just finished this book today...have been implementing all of the meditations and practices for manifesting. This really could be called create anything you want... Truth be told that which I am manifesting practically is still in progress... In any case, being as positive, fantastical and idealistic as I've always wanted to be is just plain fun! My favorite part of this book is it gives you full permission to be as dreamy as you want. Your imagination has no limits and that is so liberating. I finally gave myself permission to dream my biggest dreams, ask for things I only could meagerly hope for before. They say when you shake the universe's apple tree you're likely to get oranges- but those oranges will be sweeter than all the apples you could have hoped for. Time will tell, but I sure am a happy camper in the meantime!

This book contains a lot of valuable information about attracting money and other forms of abundance. I've highlighted something in each chapter. There are affirmations listed throughout the book which are very helpful. "I am an unlimited being. I can create anything I want." The reader may have to read at a slower pace to digest the information. The author's eye-opening perspective does make you expand your thoughts. If you come from a place of lack, then you should read this book.

This has been a favorite of mine for years and it is the best written on this subject. Well ahead of its time, it was useful way back in the 80's when I bought my first copy. It is not the usual predigested psychobabble that a lot of abundance books feed you, rather it explains in a gentle and practical way how the laws of attraction work as well powerful tools to heal blocks through exercises that follow the books sections. Well done and thank you to Sanya Roman, Duane Packer and Orin & Da Ben! (I LOVE ALL OF SANAYA's other books too!)

Just discovered this author a couple of months ago and I've already devoured 2 of their books. Would highly recommend. The book is so full of tips and techniques, it will take a second read to get it all. Its only been a short time since reading, but its already changed my perception of happiness and money.

"Creating Money: Attracting Abundance" by Sanaya Roman&Duane Packer is a very good guide on connecting with the vast resources of prosperity available in the universe. This book is also great because it is helpful to many people from various backgrounds and all walks of life. What I enjoy about "Creating Money" is that there are many facets and dimensions of abundance and prosperity covered. What I mean by this is that this book also contains ideas on increasing one's ability to listen to inner guidance and develop unlimited thinking. The following is a sampling of what is covered in this phenomenal title:Following Your Inner Guidance(Chapter 5): This chapter covers information on the several kinds of inner guidance. There is also details available on ways to stimulate an intuition increase. The statements on the benefits of taking quiet time to reflect were very persuasive.Miracles (Chapter 11): I found it wonderful to see that the chapter begins with the how and why miracles are created from love. Creative information is available in this section regarding tips to increase the miracles in all areas of one's life.Believing In Yourself (Chapter 15): There is insightful details included as to why someone may encounter objections from those around them as they choose the path that is actually the closest to their joy. The detail that was very informative to me from this chapter is that having someone opposing you can be a blessing in disguise. I love that the authors emphasized that it is essential to avoid letting other people's images of what they see you doing influence your own personal dreams/ambitions. In addition, the authors also emphasize that in order to joyfully change your life, the belief that something better exists must be present. There are many uplifting and inspiring affirmations available in "Creating Money". My two favorite affirmations from this book are: 1) All my experiences are opportunities to gain more power, clarity, and vision (pg. 110). 2) I serve others to the best of my ability in all I say and do (pg. 233). Creating Money: Attracting Abundance by Sanaya Roman and Duane Packer is written in the same type of loving and creative energy of the "Living with Joy" book. This guide is a healing and unique to get if you are looking for something that contains a combination of ways to increase joy and a higher receptivity to good luck.
