Customer Reviews

Carl Warner, a professional still life photographer with a studio in London, has worked in the advertising industry for more than 20 years. He is married with four children and lives in Kent.

This is my favorite calendar year after year. This year was the first time I ordered through , and I received my calendar quicker for a little less than I used to pay. Also, it was packaged in a way that kept it pristine in transit. Finally, the art depicted for each month is extraordinarily inventive, clever and fun, keeping me intrigued for as many as 31 days before I flip the page. I couldn't be happier!

GORGEOUS pictures - I get one every year when they have them, love this for my kitchen!!!

This is about the 4th year I have gotten this calendar. The pictures are always so creative and original!

I've been following Warner's work for years. The photos on the covers are better than the out of focus images inside the calendar. Will not last more than a few weeks on my wall until I replace it. Not worth the trouble to return.

I buy one every year and always look forward to the different monthly scenes!

At my work place we like to make a big show out of all of our calendars at the beginning of each month and this one is definitely fun. The scenes are great and we like to try to figure out what all of the food is each month.

If your a cook or a foodie you have to own this calendar. Everything drawn in these pictures is food believe it or not. This is the second calender I've bought from this guy. They keep getting better.

I love this calendar! I get one for myself and now one every year for my mother too. My only disappointment is that the picture descriptions haven't been on the pages for the last two years:(
