Customer Reviews

We have done an informal survey of a number of our authors and also of paralegal instructors and program directors, and consensus was that this kind of resource would be very useful in paralegal courses and that there would be great demand by students and professors for such a product.

William Putman is a lawyer and former instructor in the programs for Legal Assistant Studies at Central New Mexico Community College in Albuquerque and Paralegal Studies at Santa Fe Community College. A member of the New Mexico Bar since 1975, he received his Juris Doctor degree from the University of New Mexico School of Law.

product was as described, arrived on time. Would buy again and from same vendor.

I regret purchasing this book! Any person who has experience in writing and/or grammar will be gravely disappointed with the contents of this almost English 101-level text. It may be useful to ESL professionals.

Excellent book to help with drafting legal documents. It does not have information for ALL legal documents but it is a great reference guide.

It is an excellent book in learning how to correct your language to perfect writing sentence structure. It has helped me tremendously.

This book is an amazing summarization of everything you'll need to know for legal writing. Well organized and a user friendly layout.

Very helpful in my legal studies writing. Perfect size, small and compact. Laid out well with easy to find info.

Not what I expected but it's fine for what I paid for it.

This guide has been a great resource for the legal research and writing courses I am required to complete as part of a paralegal studies program.
