This book was given as a gift and my friends loves it

What a sweet little book this is! It's compact, chock-full of delightful recipes, and absolutely gorgeous pictures! It also has some little tid bits of information about how the Amish celebrate Christmas. I bought one for my sister's birthday, and liked it so much that I bought one for myself. She is enamored with it as well. Recommended!

Received the product on time. Reviewed the book completely last night and the recipes are good but not enough really old fashion recipes for my liking. Many recipes seem to be relatively common. I was looking for "old farm" type recipes. Will keep the book and add it to my collection.

This is more than just a collection of recipes. This cookbook also contains great info about the Amish customs. Easy-to-follow recipes have added good-tasting meals on our Christmas table. The cornbread salad and chicken and rice dish (on page 99) was the greatest hit.

same old same old everyday simple recipes very disappointed but, beautiful pictures and some scriptures

Bought this book for my aunt. She really loves it. Pictures are beautiful.

This is a lovey book for using it as a gift and I thoroughly enjoyed it

I was looking for a cookbook for my MIL -- she loves cookbooks and Wanda Brunstetter. I didn't even know this book existed. When I got it in the mail, it totally exceeded my expectations. I wish I had ordered one for myself!
