Tekkin A Waalk: Along The Miskito Coast

Synopsis

This book follows a footloose journey along the Miskito coast, from Belize down through Guatemala, the Honduras to Nicaragua and Costa Rica to Panama. From turtle fishing to spirit dances to getting arrested when washed ashore after a storm on the wrong side of the border, this book combines a curiosity in the human flotsam and jetsam that litter the coast with a shrewd eye for its history; the Miskito and Garifuna Indians have since time immemorial been visited with one tin pot pseudo-monarchical regime or another, and the results were, and are, in turn both hilarious and tragic.

Customer Reviews

Actually, the response from the seller was well within the allotted time to deliver and the book arrived in very good condition. I bought Tekkin a Waalk for someone else. Having read the book a few years ago now, I vaguely remember all the details, what I do recall was that it is well written, engaging and Peter Ford can spin a yarn for sure. His observations and his uncanny ability to weave a tale with historical anecdotes thrown in for good measure is pure writing theatre. 'Nuff said...
