Donna Marie Seim is the award-winning author of two children's picture books and two middle grade readers. Donna's most recent book, ASANTE SANA TANZANIA, is an adult travel adventure book filled with stunning photography by Martin Seim.

Excellent copy.

To begin, the cover of this book is striking, a lion resting, eyelids drooping and chin flat to the ground. The cover photo is just one example of hundreds of attractive photos of Tanzania – its animals (lions, antelope, cheetahs, jackals, wildebeests, giraffes, elephants, rhinos, zebras, a variety of lizards and beautiful birds large and small), its people, and its sights. The photographs, many breathtakingly beautiful, are enhanced by verbal descriptions of the Seims' impressions of the scenery and personal stories of interesting and sometimes a little scary incidents that occurred on their trip. For example, the story of author Donna and photographer Martin Seim's trip unfolds with tales of landing a puddle-jumper airplane among a herd of wildebeests and strict rules from their guides about not wandering alone into the wild. It makes for engaging reading that is pleasing to the eye as well. A reader who is actually planning a trip to Tanzania gets many tips about how to choose a tour company, what shots to get, what clothes to pack, the weights allowed for luggage, and cash to have on hand for tipping, all presented in a conversational and personal context. It is obvious to me why this book was a 2016 Finalist for a Next Generation Indie Book Award in two categories, Travel/Travel Guide and Best Cover Design Non-fiction. A great book for those who want a helpful guide for planning their trip to Tanzania or who would like to take a delightful armchair trip there with two interesting travel companions - Asante Sana, Donna and Martin!
