Order getting today by mailman, 0719/16 Meanwhile this American Government and Politics Today study textbook is a 2009-2010 Edition (a most actual edition copy isn't getting into the Netherlands). But it really don't mind me. It already gives me right insight containing things in all the details how does the American Government works for us into our free and democratic world including Europe, the amendements and all the forms of elections, like presidential, governemental, and local public servants, with all it's problems nowadays and other form of requirements. Very interesting and valuable, for reading it by every historical buff, like me, to a better seeing the US!

This book keeps it short and sweet while delivering all the information you would need on a subject concerning American government and minor information on law.

History classes was fun thanks to this BOOK!

baahhh.. what I have to say?! it was required for school... not the best, but not the worst! what book of American government doesn't have boloni ?! quality was good!

We used this book in class.

The book on the ad page looks like a student version. What I got was a teacher's version. It was delivered in probably about a week, which was good. I did not, however, want a book with stuff all on the sides distracting me while I'm reading. If I were in class, this would probably be great to cheat with. I'm reading this for leisure, though, so it's kind of a nuisance. (Shrugging) I'll have to order another.

This is probably a classroom requirement, so it doesn't really matter what I think about it.

Great option to rent instead of purchasing only to end up with a book never to be used again or sold anywhere near what you paid for it. Yay kindle rentals!!! It cost for $26.00 for two months
